A teacher in the campus school has said that one of the most important concepts that she attempts to get across to her pupils is that the world is continually changing. As college students we of the 1953 Brown and Gold staff are aware of this and as students of Western Michigan College our reaction to this concept is even greater, for Western has been undergoing various changes during the past few years. With this in mind we have constructed this book with the element of, "change," as our theme.

IN DEDICATION

CORNELIUS B. MacDONALD

On July 1, 1953 Cornelius B. MacDonald will have completed his thirtieth year of service to Western Michigan College. During his thirty years at Western he has seen many changes take place and has been instrumental, either directly or indirectly, in many of these changes.

Mr. MacDonald began his career at Western in 1923 immediately after receiving his teaching certificate, from this school, in the field of commerce. He later received his A.B. from Western and his M.A. from the University of Michigan. On July 1 of 1923 he began working in Mr. Hoekje's office as a receiving clerk. In 1938 he became supervisor of the Union and all dormitories. It was at this position that he got to know the students and they were quick to recognize the warmth and friendliness of his personality. When in 1948 the Office of the Comptroller was established Mr. MacDonald was put in charge and has served at this position ever since.

While at Western he has been active in athletics by serving as secretary on the Athletic Board and this past year he brought honor, not only upon himself but upon Western also by being elected president of the Mid-American Athletic Conference.

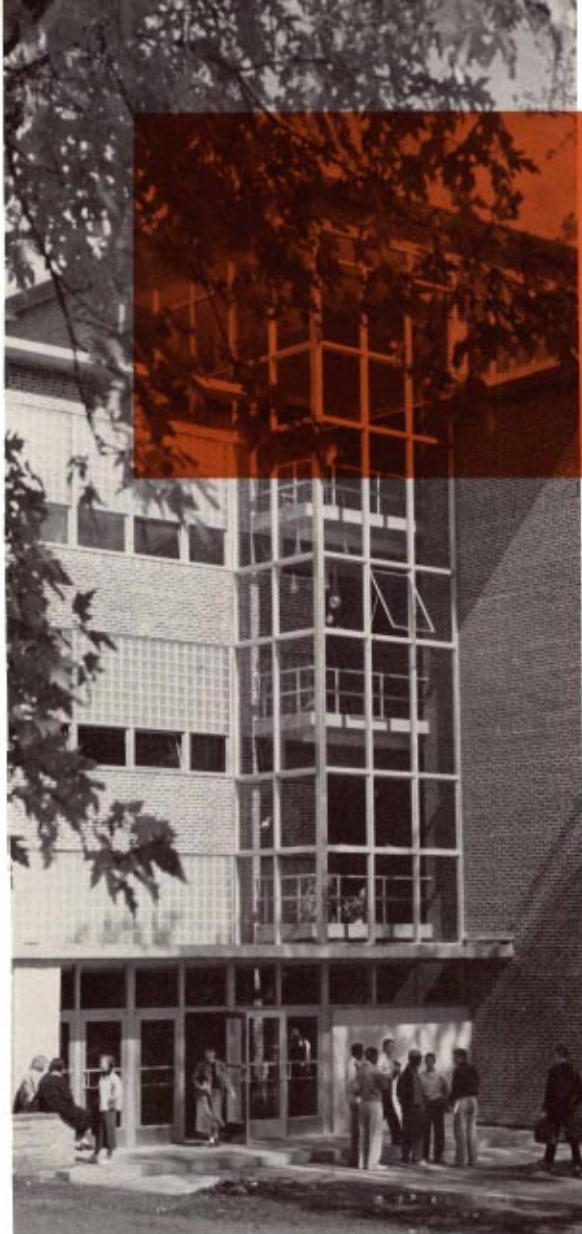

To this man who has given the best years of his life to the students and faculty of Western, this 1953 Brown and Gold yearbook is dedicated.

assemblies

Assemblies are an aspect of a person's college education that offer something extra.

When a person watches Bernard Shaw's Don Juan In Hell, performed by The First Drama Quartette he or she has really experienced something.

The programs for this year were broad and diversified and featured such men as Henry C. Wolfe who spoke upon, "What's Happening in World Affairs"; "Literature at the Half Century," by Edward Weeks; "The New Administration and Where it is Headed" by Roscoe Drummond, and Bill Costello speaking on "What Should Be America's Far Eastern Policy."

Roscoe Drummond

exploration faith

"Is Man Free?" That was the topic Dr. Stan Idzerta, Dr. George Mallinson, Dr. A. C. McGiffert and Mr. Otto Yntema discussed. The audience was enthusiastically responsive to the discussion and the gamemen-ship.

President Sangren.*

The need for spiritual and moral values is a pressing situation in the world today. Construction of Kanley Chapel revealed insight that was necessary to meet the demands of this situation. Further insight this year on the part of the faculty and members of the student body was the presentation of Exploration Faith Week. This was an attempt on the part of the Protestant, Catholic, and Jewish religions to emphasize this need for spiritual and moral values.

It was a highly stimulating week with discussions and lectures ranging from personal interviews with authorities on the problems of marriage to a highly provocative debate on the subject, "Is Man Free?"

Such a worthwhile event demands praise and encouragement for there is a definite place for such an experience on Western's campus.

Hester: "May I have a cup, please, Mrs. Phelps?"

Hester: "Don't they want to be together, Mrs. Phelps? Let me move out of the guest room . . ."

Christina: "It's what life can be and should be. It's the difference between life and self."

Christina: "Don't you mean his place in this part of the world, Mrs. Phelps?"

the silver chord

Mrs. Phelps: "We know now where we stand, all three of us."

Christina: "Face the facts, Dave! Face the facts!"

Mrs. Phelps: "Oh, how simply things come straight when people are willing to cooperate and make little sacrifices."

Christina: "I mean to strip this house and show it up for what it really is."

On January 14 the curtain went up on the Player's performance of Sidney Howard's dramatic play The Silver Chord. The theme of the play centered around the conflict of two sons and their decision of who comes first, their mother or their wives.

Joni Newblom played the part of Mrs. Phelps, the mother, while her two sons, David and Robert were played by Dick Nichols and Max Plumhoff. Ann Keller was Christina and Mary Jo Henderson took the part of Hester. Jean Artesani played the part of the maid.

The 1953 Brown and Gold Fantasies presented another smash hit, Moon on the Bayou to follow up last year's S.R.O. success.

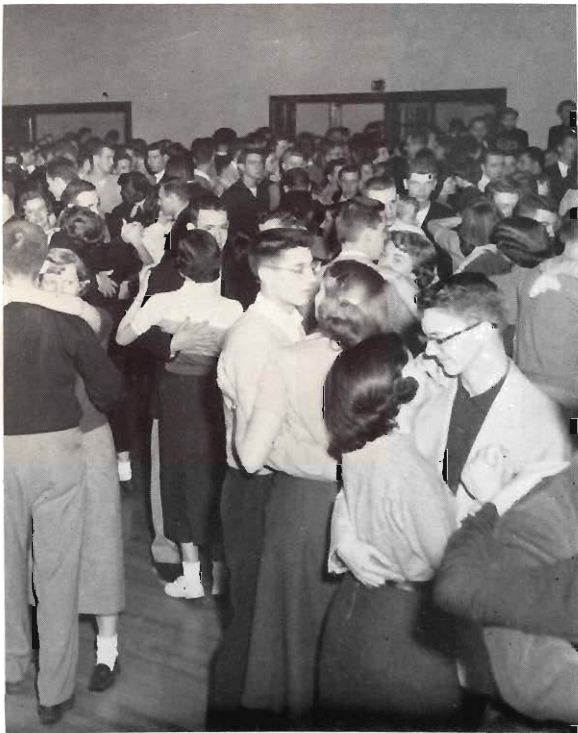

The locale of this year's Fantasies, the Bayou country of Louisiana, produced such outstanding musical numbers as "Moon of the Bayou," "Tit Albert," "You Smiled," and others.

The author of "Moon on the Bayou" was Philip Faustman. The music and lyrics, all original, were composed by Marcelle Gillespie, Madge Tappenden, Marie Seifert, Dick Swinsick, Ken Hansen and Dave Holcomb. The student directors were Earl Robinson, Noel Jackson, and Bob Azkoul. Produced by the Brown and Gold Fantasies Committee, with Dr. Jack Murphy and Philip Faustman, Co-chairmen; Harry Hefner, Daniel Kizer, Philip Mason and Harold Shoup, and utilizing the efforts of from 150 to 200 Western students, the Fantasies once again revealed itself as an important segment of Western life.

Jerry French, Norm Slack, Earle Robinson, Bob Peterson.

A scene from last year's very successful Fantasies.

dances

Weekends at Western mean dances and the number far exceeds the variety. Tradition singles out the Homecoming and Cotillion dances while dispersed in between are the J-Hop, Junior-Senior Dinner Dance and the many Greek sponsored dances. For those who enjoy dancing it's sure tough on the shoe leather.

the union

Extra-curricular activities here at Western have their focal point at the Union. Be it a dance, club meeting or just a casual conversation with a boy or a girl the Union provides the proper atmosphere for diversion from the routine of school.

May 1952 saw the initiation of what the Greeks hope to be an annual event, "Greek Week." Waldo Stadium took on the atmosphere of an ancient Hellenistic stadium and became the reincarnation of the Olympic games. Such events as foot and chariot races climaxed a week of athletic contests that included tennis and golf matches and skits, that were presented by the less athletic individuals. The week was brought to a very successful close with an informal dance for the student body Friday night and a closed dress-up dance for the Greeks Saturday night. The success of the week strengthened Greek relations with the student body at large and within the Greeks themselves. This year's Greek Week was destined to be even more successful.

dormitories

A variation in dorm entertainment. It swept the country.

Dorms incorporate a variety of living experiences. Studying, eating, and inter-dorm entertaining, which has variations, are just part of the friendly atmosphere that prevails within a dorm making it a more enjoyable place to live.

classes

One hundred-twenty measures later and still no tympani.

Methods of communication have changed also.

mc cracken hall

By practical application, some physics laws became a means, that had as their end a culmination of aesthetic beauty. This end had dynamic simplicity whose functionalism became a place that propagated the pursuit of knowledge. The pursuit was diversified. For some it meant the analysis of a Picasso, while for others; contemplation of Max Planck's "Quantum Theory." Between these levels were the papermaker and the homemaker, both of whom were conscious of the potential therapist that worked near them.

This is McCracken Hall. This, with its multitudes of diversities, is Western.

widr

Carlene Marker awaits the signal from Ken Blaydon, "You're on the air!"

Western is now operating two radio stations on campus although the range and scope of the two vary considerably.

WMCR is a FM station operating on channel 216 at 91.1 megacycles with 400 watts effective radiated power.

As a member of the tape network of the National Association of Educational Broadcasters Western received most of their programs from them by taping the programs. One of the outstanding programs of the year was, "The Jeffersonian Heritage." In addition to this WMCR carried educational programs, rebroadcasts of all Western assemblies, and live broadcasts of the football, basketball and baseball games. Mr. Wallace Garneau was station manager, Glen Bishop was station engineer, Jacqueline Kintner was program director and Bernie Ferneau served as sports announcer.

WIDR is an interdorm station operated by the Student Council and its primary function is to entertain with record programs and to inform the students in the dorm about pertinent news. Winston Wessels was station manager, Jack Goodsell was chief engineer, Bernie Ferneau served as program director and Bob Gunnett was business manager.

As usual, the publication of the Brown and Gold delights both students and faculty. The composition and content of the 1953 annual are well up to par. I am sure that those who have an opportunity to see it will agree that the good work should continue.

At any time of the year in all kinds of weather athletics present to the individual opportunities for self expression. The whole of this expression fluctuates between the individual, the sport, and the person directing this sport. Here at Western this past year the whole has fluctuated and has the potential of additional fluctuation because of changes of parts within these wholes.

athletic board

Heading the intercollegiate athletic system this past year at Western was the eight-member Athletic Board. Included among the duties of this ex-officio group were the formation of policies concerning awards, schedules, eligibility, and other matters pertaining to intercollegiate athletics here at Western.

The board was comprised of five faculty members and three students. The Athletic Department was represented by the director Mitchell Gary. Dr. William Berry and Charles Smith represented the faculty. Cornelius MacDonald as Comptroller of Western served as secretary. Student membership was comprised of the president of Student Council, president of the "W" Club and sports editor of the Herald.

Chairman of the board was John C. Hoekje, Dean of Administration.

*Bill Brown, "W" Club;
Norb Vandersteen, Student Council;

The element of change that has predominated this past year also had its effect upon the athletic department. By the first of February there had been a turnover of coaches in three major sports and one minor.

It began late last summer when Bill Perigo and Mat Patanelli left Western to take over positions at the University of Michigan. Joe Hoy, a former Western grad, and who had been coaching at Wisconsin State College became head basketball coach while Jack Petoskey, a former Michigan football player took over as end coach of the football team. Then in December John Gill retired as head football coach with Petoskey taking over. Gill became associated athletic director and also coached frosh baseball.

The continuants of this change promoted Clayton Maus from track coach to the administrative job of Assistant Registrar. George Dales became track coach. He had been working on his doctorate in physical education at Michigan.

athletic department

Assuming the position of golf coach was Roy Weitz which was left vacated by Perigo. Charles Maher received a promotion to full professor and directed the general physical education program.

physical education department

The Physical Education Department directs the major and minor curricula in physical education for men and also sponsors a varied intramural program. With the proposed plan of expansion near at hand, which will eventually include a physical education building and a field house, the department will be able to offer a more extensive program.

Majors and minors are offered technical courses in football, basketball, baseball, and track plus a comprehensive study of minor sports while those students not in the specific field of physical education are required to take four hours of general physical education. The coaching staff undertakes the job of instructing these various courses and receives assistance in the general physical education program from student teachers.

In examining this past year's season we find little variance in this season's performance and that of the one preceding it. Western finished with four wins and four losses and finished in a three way tie for last place in the Mid-American Conference with Toledo and Western Reserve.

The dissimilarity one finds in the two seasons is the change in personnel. Jack Petoskey became end coach filling the position left vacated by Matt Patanelli who went to University of Michigan.

Joe Hoy, the Bronco's new basketball coach, assisted in the backfield and Roger Chiaverini, who was back in school doing graduate work, assisted Wietz on the line.

Western's passing offense overshadowed their ground attack and the defensive team was quite brilliant offensively. Two interceptions were immediate touchdowns and numerous others led to scores. George Heydlouff, besides being instrumental in scoring on one of the interception, returned a punt 48 yards for a touchdown.

Quarterback Chuck Higgins established a new Mid-American Conference passing record in the number of attempts, 122, and the number of completions, 48. Chuck also led the league in touchdown passes, throwing seven. End John Smith, made every attempt to assist Higgins by snagging 17 passes for a total of 337 yards gained. Bill Brown scored eight touchdowns and led the team in scoring and rushing, as he netted 4.2 yards per try for a total of 364 yards. In the conference he placed fifth in scoring with four scores.

At the annual Fall Sports Banquet, it was announced that Bill Brown was selected as the most valuable player by his teammates. The coaches selected Phil Bailey as the most improved player. Phil played end last season and was a junior. Floyd Stollsteimer was elected Captain for the next season. Floyd, who plays safety, was Western's only player to be put on the coaches' all-conference team. Announced in December, and effective in February was John Gill's retirement from his position of head football coach and his promotion to the position of associate athletic director.

Jack Petoskey was appointed head football coach and will use the single wing next fall. Roy Wietz will remain as line coach.

By winning three games against good opposition and losing only one, a heartbreaker to to Detroit, this year's Freshman team was one of the best in the last decade. After leading the highly favored Detroit team during the whole game, a pass completion and conversion in the last minutes of play enabled Detroit to win by a score of 19 to 18.

This year's lineup will provide many fine candidates for future Bronco teams.

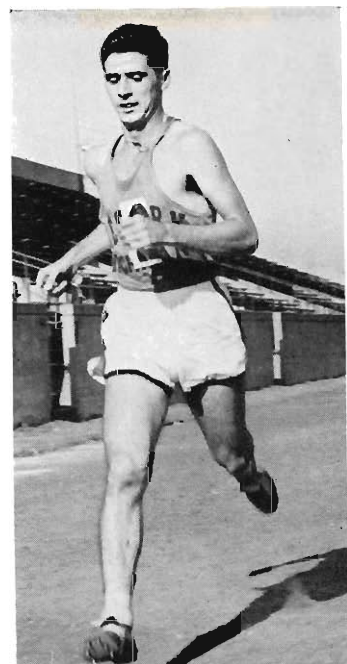

Charles Nidiffer, fullback of South Bend, Indiana, was the leading ground gainer and scorer.

The consistently good running of Tom Coyne and Frank Moser highlighted an otherwise ordinary season. Coyne led Western's team in every meet and was good enough to win three of those meets. Moser, who did not run a bad race during the year, usually finished within seconds of Coyne.

In the early season Coyne and Moser were well supported by George Hargraves and Bob Bailey. Later, Richard Betron, a late turnout, moved up with the scorers and finished among Western's top five in each of the last three meets. Betron provided the biggest individual surprise of the year, by finishing fifth on the team in his very first race.

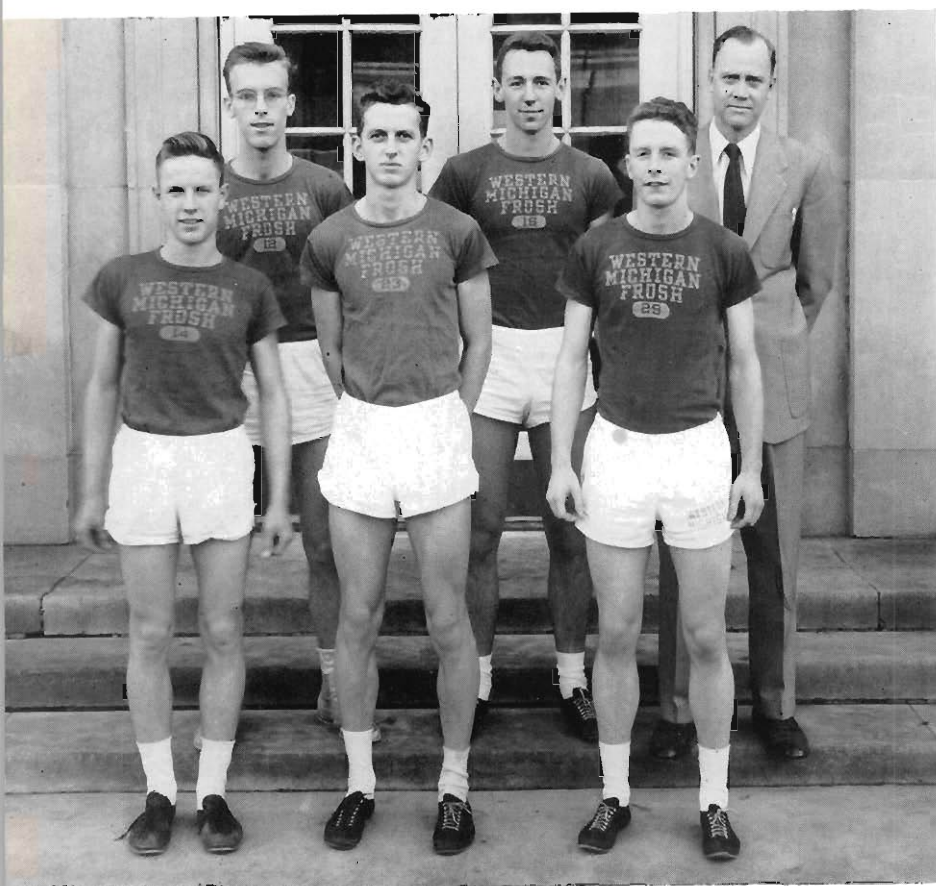

The late-season improvement of Dan Hamilton also strengthened Western in the closing contests. Bob Fitch and Jim Cobb hovered around fifth to seventh all year. Leg injuries kept Val Eichenlaub, a varsity letter-winner from 1951, and Don Lynch, a good half-miler, from doing much running.

The M.A.C. Meet, held at Miami, was won by the host team with Bowling Green outscoring Western by just seven points for second place. Miami's great Jack Heineumeum got the winner's laurels and Coyne looked good finishing fourth. In garnering their fourth straight championship Miami swamped the field outscoring the runner-up by forty-one points.

freshman cross country

Western's freshman cross-country team won two out of three meets, including a lop-sided victory over previously undefeated Bowling Green. They also beat Wayne, but lost to that ultra-nemesis, Miami.

Ray Vandersteen was Western's big gun, winning both the meets in which he competed. Truman VanLuvan and John Leitch, highly reputed high school runners, adapted well to the one mile longer college course.

Leitch, VanLuvan, and Vandersteen ran well enough in practice competition with the varsity and in meets, to make them very promising prospects for Coach Dale's '53 varsity.

Jim Sheehan and Carl Ramsay were the team's other consistent scorers, and were followed by John Spoelman, Dave Balcomb, and Jim Darkey.

Late last summer Western announced that a new basketball coach had been hired to replace Bill Perigo who had left Western to become head basketball coach at the University of Michigan. The choice of Joseph T. Hoy as Western's new coach made him the fourth man in the school's history to coach a Bronco team. Hoy, a Western graduate, had been athletic director, head basketball and baseball coach, and assisted at football at Wisconsin State Teachers College at River Falls before taking over his new position at Western.

During Hoy's first year at Western the Broncos had a season record of eleven wins and nine losses and finished fourth in the Mid-American Conference.

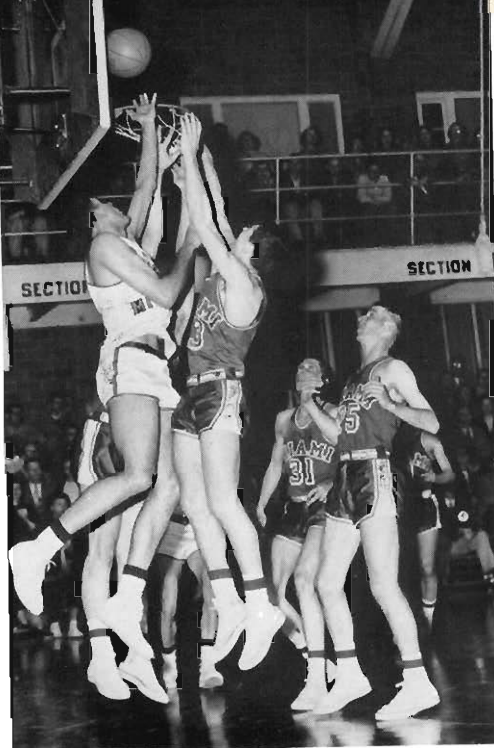

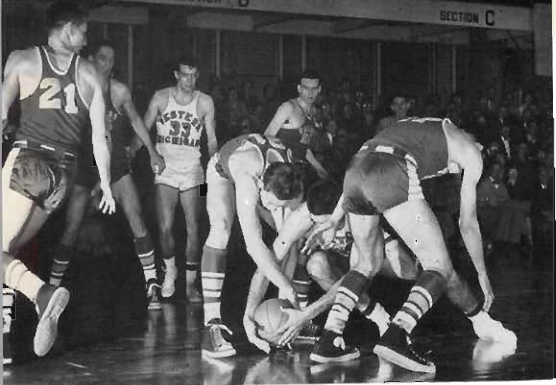

The style of ball playing used by Hoy was the perennial fast break which is so characteristic of Western. He used it most of the season but began to slow it down toward the end of the season. Western's outstanding game of the season was the 95-79 upset of Northwestern University. The Broncos scored 60 points the second half, displaying such agility and finesse in their shooting and passing that the Wildcat rooters could do nothing but applaud in appreciation.

Roy Healy.

The scoring was highly balanced with Brotebeck scoring 21, Healy 17, Benford 17, Jackson 13, Pindar 11, Diment 9 and Stacey 7. Scoring honors for the entire season went to Ron Jackson who compiled a total of 330 points for an average of 15.7 per game. Ron was named to the second team of the All-Conference team as selected by the coaches. This marked the final season for Bud Brotebeck and Roy Healy, both of whom were elected honorary co-captains at the end of the season. At the end of the season Bud was two points short of tying Don Boven's free throw record of 119 points.

If you are a young woman full of vitality, lacking inhibitions that would normally prevent you from performing ribald feats of physical agility before large crowds, then you are likely to be a cheerleader, and if you aren't, you should be. Now this statement may seem a bit paradoxical if you were to meet any one of these young ladies pictured above. For upon your first encounter with any one of them you may be taken back by their demur personality. But if you or someone were to whistle, hum or sing any portion of one of Western's school songs then you would be no longer encountering a demure individual but the person that is described in the first sentence.

Supplementing the honors that the team gained last year were the honors bestowed upon the individual players themselves.

Second baseman Dave Gottschalk was named to the second string of the All-American selection. He was also placed on the first team of the Mid-American All Conference Team along with three other of his teammates: Bill Hayes, at first; Len Johnston, outfield; and Tom Cole, pitcher.

Jack Baldwin and Bob Urda were placed on the second string of the conference team.

In statistics, Dave Gottschalk led all the way, hitting safely 34 times, batting .337 and scoring 25 runs.

Tom Cole led the team in pitching with an 8 and 2 record in eleven games. Urda was next with 6 and 2 in ten games.

1952 baseball

One of the primary goals of any team is to win the highest awards and receive the maximum acclaim that may accompany such awards. It seems that Western's baseball coach and his teams have striven for these awards.

With the above ideas in mind, and not jeopardizing the ethics of good sportsmanship, Western went undefeated in Mid-American competition for the second straight year in winning their fourth straight MAC championship. The Broncos not only qualified for the NCAA district four playoffs for the fifth year in a row but won it and went on to the finals in Omaha. There they tied with Penn State for third place while Holy Cross took first and Missouri took second.

Bud Brotebeck raps out a single against Holy Cross in the first game of the NCAA finals in Omaha.

In the first round of the district playoffs, Western split with Wisconsin in two games and the third was called in the third inning because of rain. Western won the round because it was agreed beforehand that if the above situation should develop then the winner of the first game would be declared the winner of the series. Against Illinois in the district finals, Western beat the Illini 8-2 and 2-1.

Western lost the NCAA finals opener to Holy Cross, 5-1, even though three pitchers were used in an attempt to stop the Crusaders. Home runs by Al Nagel and Bud Brotebeck, which scored five runs, gave Western the determining margin in winning over Colorado State, 8-6.

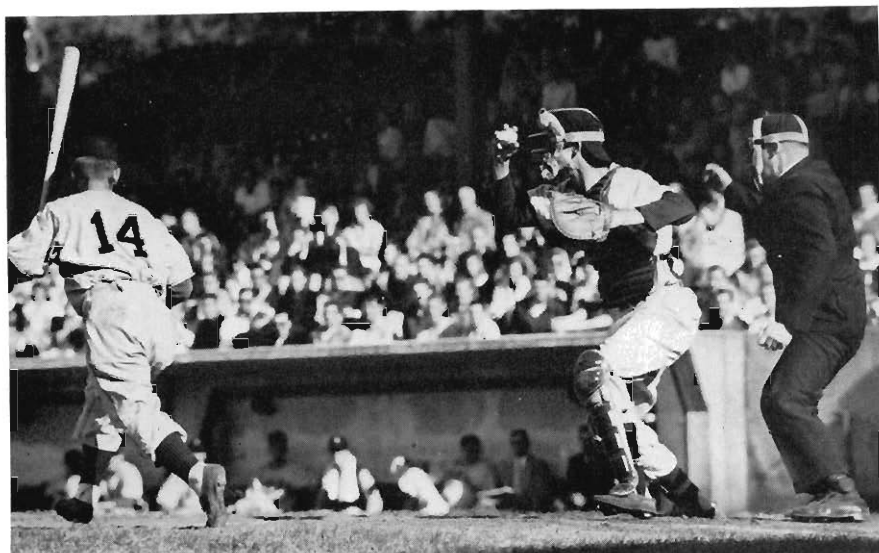

Western beat Duke in the third round 5-1, but was knocked out of the playoffs when Holy Cross beat the Broncos for the second time, 15-3.

The most outstanding game of the year was Western's 10-8 victory over Notre Dame. It wouldn't be so unusual except for the fact that Western scored eight of their ten runs in the ninth inning. It was in the last half of the ninth, with the Irish leading 8-2. Al Horn struck out and Bill Lajoie popped out to the short stop. Len Johnston started it all with a single to center field and pinch-hitter Duane Emaar tripled to center. This was followed by a wild pitch, two walks and Juane Emaar's homer to right field. Another walk, a single by Ron Jackson, and then Al Horn added the final touch with a home run. The final score was 10-8 and it goes down in the record books as a once in a lifetime game.

junior varsity baseball

The Junior Varsity completed a very successful season with a 7-win 1-lost record. Outstanding victories were recorded over Ohio State J. V., Michigan State J. V., Hope College Varsity and the Michigan Junior College Champions from Flint.

The outstanding hitter was Norm Barikmo with a .566 average including 5 triples, 4 doubles, and 1 home run. Don Finnefrock led the pitchers with a 3 won and 1 lost record.

Western began the defense of its reputation as a baseball power by beating Ohio State in two games, 2-1, and 4-1. The pitching and fielding was encouraging but hitting was weak. Bob Urda pitched a three hitter in the first game and Gary Graham scattered eight hits in eight innings in the second. Graham, a sophomore, relieved Juane Emaar in the second inning with bases loaded and one out, but pitched the Broncos out of trouble.

Western got only eight hits in the two games against the Buckeyes with shortstop Bud Brotebeck getting five of them. Bill Lajoie, Al Nagel and Max Lee held down the outfield positions. In the infield, it was Jim Stevenson at third, Brotebeck at short, Dave Gottschalk at second while Ron Jackson and Bill Hayes were sharing first base. Horn was filling his old position as catcher.

Built around a nucleus of consistent winners, Western's '52 outdoor track team won three out of five dual meets and its single triangular encounter. Only Miami finished ahead of Western in the battle for the Mid-American Conference title.

What Western lacked in depth was largely made up for by the individual brilliance of such runners as Albert Renick. Renick, a junior, was close to unbeatable in the high and low hurdles, winning each event five times and finishing first in the conference. In his victory splurge, Renick established several meet records.

Frank Nugent, conference 440 champ, was another five time winner. Nugent, a freshman, twice ran the quarter under fifty. Another freshman, Bob Bailey, a quarter-miler in high school, switched to the half and ran it consistently in about two minutes. As well as winning four meets and finishing second in the conference, Bailey ran a superb 1:56.3 half at the Drake Relays.

Joe Bryant was Western's steadiest weight man. He took first in the shot put in five meets, invariably throwing between forty-five and fifty feet.

Burt Jones in the sprints, Bill Clinger in the broad jump and miler Jerry Leland were other Western stand outs.

Western's relay teams were very successful. The mile relayers swept four races. At the Drake Relays the sprint medley team, consisting of Bailey, Azkoul, Jones and Nugent finished fourth in the entire meet in the blistering school record time of 3:32.5.

In the MAC Meet held at Kent, Ohio, only Western was able to threaten powerful Miami, as the Redskins outscored the Broncs  $94\frac{2}{3}$  to  $62\frac{1}{6}$ . The other conference entrants lagged far behind. Third-place Cincinnati scored only twenty-five points.

The closed Central Collegiate Conference Meet held at Ypsilanti was won by Notre Dame. On the strength of Renick's seconds in the high and low hurdles and Bryant's second in the shot put, Western managed to finish fifth in a field of ten.

1953 indoor track

Western's track team, in its first season under coach George Dales, showed surprising strength and balance. Indoors, the Broncos were unbeatable as they swept their four dual meets. Western's margins ranged from a 10 point victory over Central Michigan to a 90-10 massacre of Albion.

Depth was the main factor in Western's successes. Consistently placing two in the first three was the team's victory formula. But Western had quality as well as depth. Al Renick and Russ Henderson in the hurdles were invariably sure firsts and seconds. Renick resumed the record-breaking where he left off last year. Against Central Michigan he broke the field house 65 yard high hurdle record with the time of 8:1, and two months later in the Chippewa Relays, at Central Michigan, he topped his previous mark by running the highs in 8 seconds flat. At those same Relays, Henderson matched Renick's record.

It was all Tom Coyne in the distance events. He won the two mile in every meet and even took the mile against Albion. Only a sophomore, Coyne seems destined to become Western's best all-time distance runner.

In the half and 440 Bob Bailey dominated the field. He broke several records including the Western gym 440 mark which he now holds at 53 seconds flat. At the University of Chicago he ran a 51 flat quarter for a new meet record and a 52 second 440 enabled Bailey to set a new field house record at Central Michigan. Bob Azkoul was consistent in placing number two for Western in the 440. As captain, Ron Cole matched his record vault of 13 feet, at Central Michigan, which he had set the year before.

Western was strengthened in the field events by the surprisingly good performance of Gordon Hope in the broad jump and high jump as well as Bob Wagner in the high jump. Hope, competing in the broad jump for the first time, scored heavily with jumps of over 21 feet.

The track team's indoor performances indicated great promise for this year's outdoor track season.

On the basis of the frosh's performance indoors against their sole opponent, Wayne University freshmen, they presented themselves as a team with much potential. In beating Wayne's frosh 81 to 18, they broke three frosh records and tied another. Dick Parkman and Will Wright both ran through the 40 yard low hurdles in :05 seconds. Wright vaulted 11 feet 11 $\frac{3}{4}$  inches to a new record in the pole vault. Later, Wright teamed with Jim Hudson to tie the gym and frosh record in the 40 yard dash by running it in :4.5. The third record broken was Len Eason's throw of 43 feet 4 $\frac{1}{2}$  inches in the shot put.

1952 tennis

With a team that was led by a sophomore and a freshman, Ed Foster and Jack Vredevelt, the Broncos won nine out of thirteen matches during the regular season and copped, for the second time in Hap Sorenson's career of three years as tennis coach at Western, the Mid-American Conference title.

Western proceeded from a slim marginal lead of two points over the defending champions, Cincinnati, at the end of the first day, to a decisive five point victory margin on the final day of the playoffs. Western was first with fourteen points while Cincinnati and Western Reserve were tied for second with nine points each.

On the final day the Broncos won three singles titles and one doubles championship. Vredevelt won in the number two singles flight against Al Kover, Western Reserve, 6-1, 6-1, preventing Reserve from tying the score. Then Yale Brandt knocked Reserve out completely by winning the number three singles flight. Cincinnati's chance for a win or a tie was squelched by Kistler's brilliant victory over Jerry Gilbert of the Bearcats, 6-1, 6-1.

Foster and Vredevelt were played to the hilt in their doubles victory against Gilbert and Gross of Cincinnati.

Western approached the 1953 season with enthusiasm but were conscious of the loss of Ed Foster who forsook this season in order to have a full year's eligibility in all sports next year. The nucleus of the team was formed around letter winners Jack Vredevelt, number two man last year; Bob Nuding, and Dick Hendershott. Assisting them were Chuck Church and Lee Cox, juniors, and George Carpenter and Dick Laurent, sophomores.

1952 junior varsity tennis

Western's Junior Varsity team functioned in a different capacity than the ordinary freshman team as a result of the NCAA ruling, but it apparently had no effect on their performance. The JV team of George Carpenter, John Riley, Bill Nixon, Dave Powell, and Dick Laurent won three out of four matches which included a shutout against Hope's varsity.

With a season's record of three wins, eight losses and three ties, Western's golf team just wasn't able to hit par. Dale Clark and Spike Carlson nearly split for low scores during the season while Joe VanNess also carded out low several times. VanNess and Clark both hit 71 in the last match of the season against Detroit while Clark hit a 71 earlier in the season.

Western finished fifth in the conference championship with a score of 626. Ohio was first, for the second year in a row with a score of 608. Cincinnati finished with 615 for second place while Kent State and Miami tied for third with 616.

Prospects for the 1953 season looked good, for Spike Carlson, Joe VanNess, and Don Kelly, all letter winners, were back. They faced a schedule that was nearly twice as long as the '52 season and one that called for about three matches a week.

intramurals

Western has an extensive intramural program and is enlarging it each year. One of the feature events of the year was a Turkey Run, in which the winning team received a live turkey while the individuals that placed first and second received a live duck and chicken, in that order.

Allen Hall became the new touch football champs by beating Kappa Sigma Kappa, 20-0. The "523" boys beat Allen Hall I, 47 to 40 for the intramural basketball championship. Jim Hipshur with 14 points and Ed Foster with 13 were high point men for the winners.

A tribute should be extended to the men who conduct this fine intramural program: Clayton Maus, Ray Sorenson, George Dales and to their student assistants, Jim Giddis and Don Withey.

With a minimum of publicity and support, as compared to the men's physical education setup, the Women's Physical Education Department provides, directs, and stimulates a well balanced athletic program. This program fluctuates between the needs of a physical education major to the individual whose posture needs to be rejuvenated. It offers experience to all physical education students and to individuals on the intramural level in such sports as field hockey, basketball, life saving, and those that are represented pictorially.

Directing this versified program was Miss Crystal Worner, Miss Doris Hussey, Miss Margaret Large, Mrs. Helen Brown, Miss Eleanor Douglass, Miss Stephanie Prychitko, Miss Joette Hainks, Miss Isabel Crain.

student council

Reaffiliation with the National Student Association, revision of the scholarship fund and the publication of a booklet to inform the legislature of Western's future needs constituted major activities of the Student Council during the 1952-1953 council year. The many annual duties of the representative body were carried out, while many new responsibilities and activities were added in order to more effectively promote the welfare of all the members of the college community.

Under the administration of president Norb VanDerSteen, Student council's many activities were coordinated with the activities of other campus groups: student, faculty and administration. As president, Norb was responsible for general direction of all Council activities; provided liason with the college administration, and established procedures and planning with the assistance of the executive committee.

Warren Rouse, as vice-president, directed the organization of the Student Council sponsored social activities: the all-student party in September, the Christmas Party, and the mixer with Kalamazoo College. The exacting job of secretary, which demands seldom realized quantities of time in the preparation of minutes, reports, letters and files, was performed by Joyce Shaffer.

student council

The special duties of the publicity director, Ken Gray, included an extensive revision of the Bronco Book, the publication of the 1952-1953 Student-Faculty Directory and a second semester supplement to the Directory and the supervision of the Spring student elections. Jack Fricke was appointed assistant publicity director during the Fall semester and supervised the Fall elections as chairman of the Election Board.

Robert Collins, as treasurer, served as custodian of Student Association funds, the administration of which is one of the chief responsibilities of the council. Student Council auditor Don Spitler recorded his periodic investigations of the financial proceedings of all student organizations, assisted the treasurer, and completed a study resulting in recommendations for the improvement of financial procedures. The efficiency and parliamentary accuracy of Student Council meetings were greatly enhanced by the rulings of the president's parliamentarian, Jim Clark.

Major portions of Council activity were channeled through the standing committees: the Social committee under Warren Rouse, the Student Emergency Relief Fund committee under Jane Caley, the National Student Association Committee under Greg Anrig, and the Leadership committee under Gerry Rush and Pat Pearsall.

The new Student Council sponsored radio station WIDR became a major source of concern during the year, when increased difficulties in the financial relationships illustrated the need for an adjusted administrative structure. The Brown and Gold Fantasies production was again sponsored by the Council although attempts at revision in the supervision of the production were at times, incompatible with the college administration.

Philanthropic gestures of the Council included continued contributions to a "foster child" in France through CARE, the sale of the Salvation Army's Christmas edition of the War Cry on campus, the administration of the March of Dimes drive, and the annual Christmas dance, the proceeds of which are joined with the Salvation Army's Christmas efforts.

men's union

The Men's Union Board is the nerve center of activities for men on the Western Michigan campus. Its avowed purposes are: to establish a governing body, to provide extra-curricular programs, to develop campus leadership, and to enact various activities in the interest of male students at Western Michigan.

Bill Durkee, president; Don Tapert, vice-president; Dick Shorr, secretary; Lou Christensen, publicity; Dick Hender-shott, treasurer.

associated women students

*Jean Acuna,

Known in former years as Women's League, the governing body of all women students this year became a member of the national organization, the Associated Women Students. Its purpose is to unite all women students, to meet their social needs, to uphold high social standards, to govern women students, to afford leadership opportunities, and encourage scholastic achievement.

AWS is divided into two boards: activities board, and judicial board. With the vice-president as chairman, the judicial board is composed of representatives from the Off-campus house council and the residence halls' councils. Its duties are of a disciplinary and regulatory nature, working with the administration to further the interests of women students. With the president of AWS as chairman, the activities board provides a social program and sets social standards for AWS members.

The year proved to be very active with a variety of events including: The senior sister program;

The weekly teas held every Wednesday in the Davis Room, and signing organizations to go to dances at the Veteran's Hospital in Battle Creek were year-long services.

The officers for this year were: Jane Caley, president; Shirley McCloy, vice-president; Betsy Meabon, secretary; Stephanie Romanowski, treasurer; and Georgianna Lewis, publicity manager. Sponsors for the year were Dr. Elizabeth Lichty, Dr. Clara Chiara, Mrs. Helen Inman, and Mrs. Marguerite Patton.

arista

Last year at the June Breakfast seven junior women were "Tapped" for Arista, the women's honorary society for senior women. Arista, having been organized in 1940, carried on its many traditional and service activities throughout the school year of 1952-53. The members were chosen unanimously for their leadership, scholarship, and service to the college.

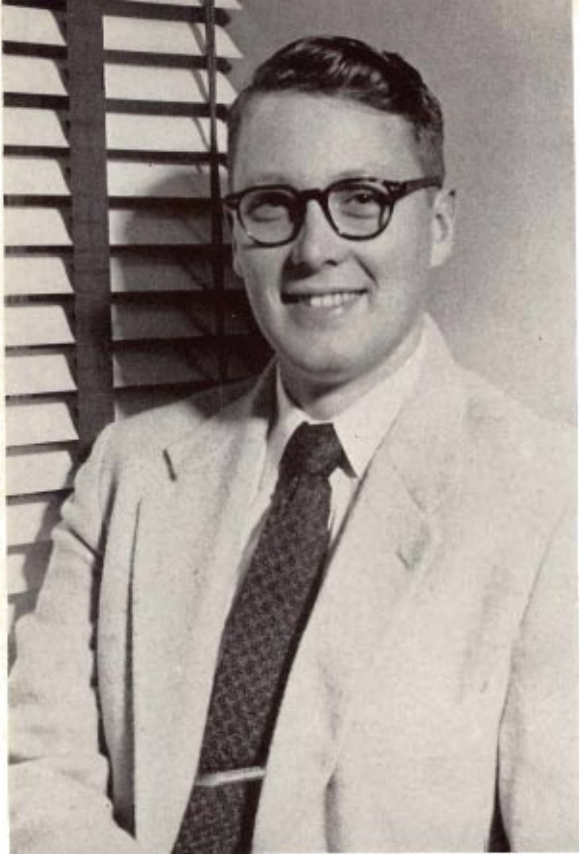

Arista continued its efforts in working for affiliation with Mortarboard, the national honor society for senior women. Several service projects were undertaken by the girls such as: filing the Student Council Class cards for the election, making Thanksgiving favors for Fairmont Tuberculosis Hospital, and ushering at the January graduation.

Besides the service projects Arista had some very fine social events including the Homecoming Breakfast and an honor chocolate for sophomore women.

This year the Herald has been striving to fulfill its original purpose: to function as the informative organ for the students, the faculty, and the administration, of Western Michigan College.

To better achieve its goal, the Herald has been published each week with a text front page, an innovation which has increased the space for news.

For the first time, an issue of the Herald awaited each student as he arrived to enroll in September. Also two special issues were published giving pictures and information about campus life to prospective Freshmen.

Chuck Sherwood, as editor, was responsible for every phase in the production of the Herald and wasn't that enough.

With Jim Hoekje serving as business manager, the Herald had one of its most successful years, financially.

Winston Wessels served as news editor for the year. One of the key men of the staff, it was his task to cover the non-social events on campus. Ron Smith handled athletic news as sports editor for the first semester, and was replaced by John Sistanish for the second semester.

Here within the cover of this book is the combined efforts of several individuals who have attempted to record the efforts of some four thousand students during the past year at Western Michigan College. To do this has required work, cooperation within the staff, and more work. What ever one can say here, in the acknowledgement of this work, that has been done by the staff, is little. The sum total of their work and the recognition of it lies within the completed book itself.

We were fortunate this year to have a group of individuals that possessed a sense of humor. For when things get tough a humorous outlook carries you beyond the spots where you might bog down. Jim Boykin was the head photographer and deserves the most credit. He was assisted by John Alley and Fred Gareiss.

Dave Holcomb is responsible for the cover and art work and he was assisted by Lasse Aaltonen. Carl Ramsay and Gareiss wrote sports. And then there was Terrible Ted Dickerson the assistant editor. Oh well! It was a great year.

alpha phi omega

The Gamma Phi chapter of Alpha Phi Omega was established on Western's campus in 1941. Alpha Phi Omega is a national service fraternity and started the year's activities ushering at the various assemblies. Other services performed throughout the year were: building the homecoming bonfire, cleaning sections of Kleinstuck Reserve, and visiting patients confined to the Health Service.

The leaders for the club were: Doug De Grow, president; Max Plumhoff, vice-president; Joe Horrick, secretary; David Howes, corresponding secretary; and Bill Breyfogel, treasurer. The sponsors were Frank Jesse and Dr. Leo Stine.

gamma theta upsilon

The purpose of Gamma Theta Upsilon, a national geography fraternity is, to further professional interest in geogaphy, to strengthen student training, and to provide opportunity for development of social amenities.

Western's Alpha Gamma chapter didn't confine themselves to just exploring local points of geographical interest. Besides entering a float in the Homecoming parade and entertaining alumni and guests at a Homecoming coffee they supplied guides for the annual Science Day held in the spring. Supplementing these activities were the monthly business meetings that often featured movies and illustrated travel talks.

Officers of the year were Harold Cook, president; Jane Hughes, vice-president; Ilene Searle, corresponding secretary; Marilyn Darrow, recording secretary; Paul Stack, treasurer; Joanne Smith social chairman; and Dale Pattison was publicity chairman. Sponsors were Miss Marguerite Logan, Dr. Cyril Stout and Dr. William Berry.

kappa delta pi

Beta Iota chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, reached a milestone in its twenty-fourth year on Western's campus when it initiated its one-thousandths member Margaret Gaskill, at the fall ceremonies. Dr. Lee Thurston, state superintendent of public instruction, spoke on "What the Community Expects of a New Teacher."

Kappa Delta Pi began its year's activities with a chocolate recognizing freshmen honor students. In December nine members of Beta Iota chapter joined thirty other chapters at a national regional meeting at Kent State University. At the spring Honors Convocation the Kappa Delta Pi honor award was given to the chapter senior judged as best supporting and promoting the ideals of Kappa Delta Pi.

Howard Mowen, history department, reported on education in Yugoslavia at one meeting while at another, Miss Alicia Gonzalez, from Nicaragua, entertained members with her guitar. The year's activities were climaxed with the annual party at the home of the counselor, Dr. William Robinson.

Officers for the year were Ken Gray, president; Margaret Eddy, vice-president; Polly Welburn, secretary; Joel Burdin, treasurer; and Louhelen Eggleston, historian-recorder.

kappa rho sigma

Kappa Rho Sigma was organized by the Faculty Science Club on November 17, 1920. It has been the aim of this honor society to give recognition to students outstanding in the fields of science and mathematics.

Selection of students qualified for this honor is made yearly by the unanimous vote of the faculty members of the science and mathematics departments.

The annual initiation banquet was held at the Arcadia Brook Clubhouse in May, after which, new members were entitled to wear the key of the society.

Sigma Alpha Tau, installed at Western in 1950, is an honorary aviation fraternity.

By extending itself beyond the normal goals of an honorary fraternity Sigma Alpha Tau, in collaboration with the Sky Broncos, sponsored a homecoming float and a dance.

Officers for the year were: Hershhal King, president; Don Hitzfield, vice-president; Jason Zote, treasurer; Joe Bryant, secretary; and Dick MacLeod, corresponding secretary. William Wichers was sponsor.

sigma tau chi

Sigma Tau Chi, an honorary business fraternity, limits its membership to students enrolled in any of the business studies curricula who meet the requirements of the club. It is one of the largest coeducational organizations on campus.

In order to coordinate a closer relationship between the student and business the club had some of the leading business men and women of Kalamazoo speak to the club. This in turn was supplimented by trips to some of these concerns as well as making a field trip to Chicago. Of course for a lighter touch there is the traditional Christmas party and the annual formal banquet in May.

Directing these functions were Clarence Miller, president; Janice Gregerson, vice-president; Dorothy LaDuke, secretary; Carol Wilson, treasurer; Joan Dimmick, alumni secretary; Barbara Courtois, statistician. Mrs. George Kirby and Lester Lindquist served as club sponsors.

phi mu alpha sinfonia

Sinfonia was organized in 1946 and two years later, with added variations, it became the Delta Iota Chapter of Phi Mu Alpha. With the purpose of advancing the cause of music in America, Sinfonia gave forth with a jazz concert in February. In conjunction with Sigma Alpha an American musicale was given in April, with time out in between for a dinner dance. Also, alumnae members come back with some learning and presented a symposium on music education. At Homecoming Sinfonia took second prize for the most humorous float.

Officers for the year were: Carl Bjerregaard, president; Jerry French, vice-president; Robert Smith, secretary; Channing Locey, treasurer; Ralph Merritt, National Councilman; and Warren Mayer, historian. The sponsor was Dr. George Bradly.

Mary Keyser, Shirley Gibbs, Jacqueline Campbell, Janet Schaffer, Carolyn Chapin, Janet Brown, Marie Siefert, Joanne Hartz, Marcia Reed.

Sigma Alpha Iota, a national professional fraternity for women in the field of music, celebrated its 50th Anniversary this year. The local chapter, Beta Eta, has completed its fourth year on campus.

Activities began in the fall with a get-acquainted party for all freshmen women in the music department. At homecoming S.A.I. held their annual alumni breakfast and their float, a first time entry, won second prize. One of the highlights of the first semester was the initiation of four new patroness members. The S.A.I. Michigan-Ohio State Day which was held in Detroit during November was attended by fifteen members of Beta Eta. Rushing began late in November and continued with the "Rose Musicale" in early December.

The second semester began with the initiation of new members followed by the annual American Musicale which was presented to the public in conjunction with Phi Mu Alpha. A May breakfast, a picnic honoring the seniors, and the formal Founders' Day Dinner and Senior Farewell service on June 11 ended the year's activities.

The officers for this year were: Barbara Hokanson, president; Jacqueline Strong, vice-president; Grace Swihart and Nanine Landis, corresponding and recording secretaries, respectively; Martha Smith, treasurer; Betty Dorow, chaplain; Luella Little, editor; Evelyn Sowers, sergeant-at-arms; and Marcelle Gillespie, parliamentarian. Advisors for the group were Mrs. Dorothea Snyder, Miss Mary Doty, and Miss Marie Krust.

orchestra

The Western Michigan College Orchestra, under the direction of Julius Stulberg, gave its initial public performance in December at the Civic Auditorium. This concert presented music from different periods and included the work of Vivaldi, Haydn, Beethoven and Enesco. The featured soloists were Philip Mason, Marilyn Bryant, Madge Tappenden and Gretchen Dorn, violin majors from the music department. The orchestra also shared in the annual Christmas program which was held at Central High School.

In the spring the orchestra gave a May concert. Selections by Schubert, Tchaikowski and Khachaturian highlighted the program. Other activities of the orchestra included participation in the Festival of Arts, visits to regional high schools, and an annual picnic in June.

band

Directed by Leonard V. Meretta, the 100-piece Marching band, comprised of music and non-music majors, played for all of the home football games. The band played for the Homecoming parade and pep rally, and made an overnight trip to Oxford, Ohio where the group performed for the Miami-Western football game.

The Marching band featured twirlers Dick Swinsick, Kaye Meeder, Elaine Higgins, Marilyn Sittig, and drum major Duane Pifer. Russell Brown of the music department faculty assisted Mr. Meretta with the activities of the Marching Band.

The Eighth Annual Winter concert was presented in January in Central high school auditorium. A cornet trio and a clarinet quartet comprised of members from the band were featured. The Spring concert was given in Kanley court in June. For their final appearance, the band played for the commencement program. Officers for the year were: Thomas Ryan, president; William Wells, vice-president; and Gretta Pryor, secretary-treasurer.

The Men's Glee Club is an organization for any Western men who are interested in singing. The club was directed by Mr. Jack Frey.

Included in the activities for the fall semester were a trip to Grand Rapids to give concerts in three schools, a program of sacred music which was presented at the First Reformed Church, and singing in the Christmas concert at Central High. In the spring there was a concert hour and the annual banquet. Throughout the year the Men's Glee Club serenaded the different women's dormitories.

The officers for the year were: Jerry Stowell, president; Ed McKenzie, vice-president; Dick King, secretary-treasurer; and Paul Darnell, librarian.

women's glee club

The Women's Glee Club was founded on Western's campus in the fall of 1913. This organization, now under the direction of Mrs. Dortha Sage Snyder, is made up of approximately fifty selected girls. The aim of the club is to give its members experience in performing some of the finest musical literature available. The senior members were given the opportunity to choose and direct much of the music performed.

The various singing engagements included performing for the AAUW, the Christmas Chocolate, and for the women of the Methodist and Presbyterian churches. The Modern Dance Club joined the Glee Club in the various trips to regional schools. Other events of the year included an initiation banquet, caroling, a Christmas party, and a spring concert. A picnic at the home of Mrs. Snyder concluded the club's social events.

Officers for the year were: Margaret Gaskill, president; Elizabeth Tomchak, vice-president; Evelyn Sowers, secretary; Patricia Null, treasurer; Marcelle Gillespie, publicity manager; and Betty Dorow, business manager.

college choir

Throughout the year the college choir made numerous trips to the neighboring regional high schools. Before the Christmas vacation the choir participated in the annual Christmas program at Central High. Other perennial engagements were concerts in the various local churches and participation in the chapel services. Singing during the Festival of Arts week was the highlight of the spring activities. A fitting closure to the numerous spring affairs was a picnic held during the last week in May.

The officers for the choir last season were: Ralph Merritt, president; Louella Little, vice-president; Betty Dorow, secretary-treasurer.

madrigal singers

Edward McKenzie, Phil Steen, Nanine Landis, Betty Dorow, Joan Gault, Marie Seifert, Marcelle Gillespie, Claudia Zabbia, Martha Smith, Ralph Merritt, Ted Pasma, Norman Bradley.

The Madrigal Singers is a group composed of College Choir Members interested in studying and singing both 16th century and modern songs which are especially written for small groups, usually ranging from eight to twelve in number.

During the year the Singers presented programs for high school, college, and civic organizations in and about Kalamazoo. Mrs. Dorothea Snyder coached the Madrigal group and was aided by Joanne Hertz at the piano.

exploration faith

During the first week of March the different religious groups presented the Exploration Faith programs. Their aim was to demonstrate that spiritual values are implicit in all phases of life. To accomplish their aim, Newman Club, Hillel Club, and Student Fellowship invited guest speakers from local and far-away areas. Such topics as religion in Asia, marriage, and faith in its many aspects were discussed. Enumerable panel discussions followed by student "bull sessions" aided the students to delve deep into any existing problem.

This was the first year for Exploration Faith and the reception of its programs was rewarding. At the end of its week the leaders and participants felt that their life had truly been enriched.

campbell club

A religious and social fellowship of students of the Disciples of Christ brotherhood was founded and chartered during the year 1952. Named for an early leader in a movement for unity among churches, it is called the Campbell Club. The group aims to develop spiritual growth and leadership of its members.

Meeting twice monthly for devotional, educational, and social evenings, the club assisted the University Christian Mission committee on the campus with "Exploration Faith" in March. The meetings were at Kanley Chapel mainly but at Christmas time Miss Opal Stamm entertained at Colechon House.

Officers were elected following a banquet at Arcadia Brook with Jack Schaefer, president; Grace Burgess, vice-president; and Mary Corzine, secretary-treasurer.

The group is sponsored by the Central Christian Church, of which the Rev. Kenneth Bryce Seeley is pastor, and Kalamazoo Christian Church which is served by Rev. E. C. Watterworth. Faculty sponsors include Miss Opal Stamm, Miss Kate Graye Hunt, Miss Rachel Acree and Dr. Chester L. Hunt who is on leave from the college.

Hillel was founded at Western in 1945 and in 1946 became affiliated with the National Hillel Foundation which is sponsored by the B'nai B'rith, the national Jewish fraternal organization. Hillel's aims are to further the knowledge of their religious tradition, to provide an opportunity for informal social activities and to cooperate in the inter-faith program of the college which included for this year participation in, and planning of, "Exploration Faith" week.

Weekly meetings alternated between bible discussions and social programs which included movies of modern Israel and several "latke" potato pancake parties.

Mandell Bublick served as president; Myra Rubin, vice-president; Seema Gross, recording secretary; Louise Ziff, corresponding secretary; and Sandra Finn, treasurer. Julius Stulberg was faculty sponsor while Rabbi Herman Grossman was religious advisor.

inter church student fellowship

Four Kalamazoo churches sponsor Inter-Church Student Fellowship: First Methodist, First Congregational, First Baptist, and First Presbyterian. Membership is open to students of every faith from Western, Kalamazoo College and Bronson School of Nursing.

Student Fellowship members look back on a year of activities that pointed toward Christian service and a deeper understanding of the Christian faith. Weekend retreats, a series of "University of Life" discussions, Saturday work-camps, faculty fireside gatherings, a pancake supper, dramatic productions, and informal sessions at the Student house highlighted these activities.

Student Fellowship affairs during 1952-53 were guided by Dave Lowe, president; Lou Brake-man, vice-president; Beverley Partington, secretary; and Irma Grissom, treasurer. Joan Dygert took over vice-presidential duties during the second semester. Rev. John Duley and Miss Loris Mallett were directors of the group.

newman club

The Newman Club was organized on Western's campus in 1946 and received its charter in the National Newman Club federation the same year. The purpose of the Newman Club is to stimulate a religious education and cultural atmosphere among the Catholic students enrolled at Western. This purpose is achieved by the sponsoring of speakers on religious and educational topics and by encouraging our members to frequent the sacraments and other devotions. The highlights of the year were the Christmas party in December, the Mardi Gras costume ball in January, and the annual retreat during Lent.

The officers for the year were: Dick Newsome, president; Dave Newsome, vice-president; Pat Powell, recording secretary; Dorothy LaDuke, corresponding secretary; Pat Doppel, treasurer. Dr. Stanley Kuffel and Fr. James O'Meara were sponsors.

One of the newest clubs on campus is the Pre-Ministerial Club having been formed this past year. It is open to all students who are preparing for the ministry and women students who are training in the fields of religious education. The club functioned around meetings that were devoted to group discussions of the Bible and problematic religious questions in the world today. The meetings were further enlightened by guest speakers.

Richard Hooker served as president; Tom Ferris, vice-president; and Ruthmary Persons secretary. Sponsors were Mrs. Frank Householder, and Reverend Robert E. Willoughby.

ywca

The Young Women's Christian Association as a part of the national YWCA movement, was first established at Western about 1920. Spiritual growth and service to others receive special emphasis in the activities of the group.

Several service projects were carried out during the year. The two families adopted for the year were given Thanksgiving baskets, Christmas gifts, clothing, furnishings, and were visited and helped personally by many of the girls. Other service projects included participation in the WSSF drive and national and state YMCA projects.

In the fall a refreshment booth was sponsored by the group at the Carnival and a Freshman Breakfast was held for all freshman women. Other activities were Christmas caroling, participation in Exploration Faith, initiation of new members, and the annual spring banquet and picnic.

Officers for the year were: Joyce Jensen, president; Marilyn Bomers, vice-president; Gail Peters, treasurer; and Jean Randall, secretary. Sponsors were Miss Myrtle Powers, Miss Esther Schroeder, Mrs. Russell Seibert, and Mrs. George Bradley.

The artist is at his best as an individual, but a number of years ago, quite a few, some artist came to the conclusion that as an individual he is socially inapt. So he found another like himself and between the two of them they formed the art club.

So in keeping with tradition the Art Club entered into the Homecoming festivities, followed this with a Halloween party, a Christmas party and a sale. In the Spring there was a trip to the Orient . . . an Art Institute in Chicago. And then there was the big showing, "The Festival of Arts." The year's activities came to a close with the annual banquet and picnic. After this each individual went his own little creative way.

Leading this group of individuals was Norm Slack, president; Bob Petersen, vice-president; Jack Young, treasurer; Maryann Kube, secretary. Sponsors were Miss Lydia Siedschlag and Harry Hefner.

colophon club

The Colophon Club was organized in 1947 by the students in the department of librarianship. Membership consists of students who are majors and minors in the department.

The programs were usually informal with speakers chosen from various branches of library service and related fields. Among the speakers of the past year were: William Chait, librarian of the Kalamazoo Public Library; Alexis Praus, Director of the Kalamazoo Museum; C. Paul Jackson, author, and Miss Lucile Nobbs, a member of the English Department at Western Michigan College.

Among the year's activities were the Homecoming chocolate in October for the alumni, movies on library development, a Christmas party at the home of Miss Louise LeFevre, and a picnic in May.

Miss Mate Graye Hunt, assistant director, and Miss Alice Louise LeFevre, director of the department of librarianship, were sponsors. Officers of the year were: Evelyn Armstrong, president; Margaret Perry, vice-president; Lou Ann Schepers, secretary; Patricia Munro, treasurer.

country life club

The Country Life Club is Western's oldest organization and is open to any persons interested in the promotion of education in the rural communities.

During the past year ten delegates were sent to the National Rural Youth conference at Jackson Mills, West Virginia. A Christmas party was held at the home of sponsor, Dr. William Robinson, and gifts were taken to homes of needy families in Kalamazoo. The club also sponsored a Fall and Spring Rural Retreat to welcome back alumni.

Officers for the first semester were: Vern Peachey, president; Eleanor DeKline, vice-president; Margaret Judd, secretary; Jean Evarts, treasurer. And for the second semester: Dora Kohn, president; Barbara Burns, vice-president; Mildred Kidder, secretary; Jackie McCaffrey, treasurer. Dr. James Ansel was sponsor.

The purpose of Western Wives is to promote friendship among the wives of the students of Western, and to provide them with the opportunity to share in the experiences of college life. Special events for the year were a Bunco party, a pot-luck dinner, the annual Christmas party, a special Christmas party with a needy family, the annual Spring dance, and two recognition programs.

Fund raising projects were a rummage sale, a white elephant sale, and the renting of Santa Claus suits.

Leading the Western Wives for the 1952-53 school year were Betty Cook, president; Shirley Firlik, vice-president; Christine Epley, secretary; Kay Szymczak, treasurer; Marguerite Briggs, social chairman; and historian, Jan Dobbie. Dr. Elizabeth Lichty was sponsor.

Der Deutsche Verein looks back over a long history. The aim of the club is to promote a better understanding of the German people, country, and language. Der Deutsche Verein held its meetings once a month in the Administration building. Typical programs were: a travel talk illustrated with kodachrome slides by Barbara Loehr; talks on educational systems in Austria and Germany by Herwig Huber and Karl Van Ditzhuyzen; the annual Christmas party; talent show by new members, a Goethe program, and the annual picnic.

Sponsors of Der Deutsche Verein during the past year were: Miss Mathilde Steckelberg and Dr. Herman Rothfuss.

Leading the club were: Lewis Kaminga, president; Barry Ellis, vice-president; Ruta Pokornijs, secretary; and Bill Hessel, treasurer.

Ecos Espanoles, Western's Spanish Club, was organized in the spring of 1949, with the purposes of increasing knowledge of Spanish culture, promoting fellowship, and giving an opportunity for more general practice in the spoken language. Membership is open to anyone with an interest in Spanish and a desire to further his knowledge in this field.

Highlights of the year's activities were the fall and spring picnics, the Homecoming coffee, the traditional Christmas party, a trip to Ann Arbor to see a Spanish play, La Zapatera Prodigiosa, the Inter-Language Club banquet, and the appearance of various guest speakers. The Spanish Table, held weekly in the Union cafeteria, was well attended, and furnished many enjoyable, as well as profitable, discussions in Spanish.

Miss Myrtle Windsor and Mr. Herb B. Jones were faculty sponsors. Guiding the affairs of the organization for 1952-1953 were: Jean Acuna, president; Delia DeMaso, vice-president; Alice Cubbon, secretary; and Barbara Hanshue, treasurer.

Le Cercle Francais was founded in 1914 for promoting a better understanding of France, the language, and the people. As in the past, the school year has been devoted to activities in accord with the aims of the club.

The monthly meetings included club business, showing of slides, and singing and conversing in French. The meetings were open to high school students and interested townspeople. In addition to the regular meetings, the French students met at "la table ronde" in the Union on Thursday evenings.

The other activities of the club consisted of a carnival booth, and a Homecoming Alumni Coffee at the beginning of the year, followed by a rummage sale and a Christmas party. The group presented a play in the spring and climaxed the year with a picnic in June. During spring vacation, a group made a trip to Quebec and enjoyed several days in the French quarter.

Dr. Francis Noble and Miss Marion Tamin were sponsors. Officers were: Douglas Johnson, president; Jacqueline Brod, vice-president; Moyra McNeill, corresponding secretary; Margaret Perry, recording secretary; and Harold Cook, treasurer.

The Foreign Students' Club is formed on a social basis by fifty-six students representing twenty different nationalities, including displaced persons and American citizens from overseas.

At the meetings, the members of different nationalities have performed programs pertaining to their background. American guests have often been invited.

The club as a whole was entertained by the Rotary Club of Kalamazoo, and by Dr. and Mrs. Paul V. Sangren. Individual members have often visited several families in town and have given numerous speeches and have participated in programs for organizations both on and off campus.

The club officers were: Lasse Aaltonen, president; Jean-Paul DeBroise, vice-president; Ilga Upmanis, secretary; and William Hessel, treasurer. Dr. and Mrs. Fred A. Beeler and Dr. and Mrs. George E. Bradley were sponsors.

modern dance club

The Modern Dance Club welcomes all girls interested in dance and willing to meet with the group each week during the school year.

As in preceding years, the club worked with other organizations in presenting programs. Included in those activities were presentations at the annual A.W.S. Christmas Chocolate and a Christmas program for the A. A. U. W. in collaboration with the Women's Glee Club. During the spring the girls danced for the Water Sprites show and the Festival of Arts.

This year the officers were: Georgianna Lewis, president; Pearl Trestrail, secretary; and Betty Sietsema, treasurer.

elementary club

Records of the Elementary Club date back to 1925, when it was known as the Early Elementary Club. In 1951, the Later Elementary Club and the Early Elementary Club united to form the present organization.

A huge crowd packed the Rotunda for the big "get-started" party in September. "Brat's Bar" offered its wares of kiddie kandy at the Carnival. The club took active part in the Homecoming celebrations with "The Stars Will Tell" float and an annual Saturday morning coffee. Informative member-led meetings centered around art, dramatics, music, and industrial arts in the classroom. With aviation as headliner, Mr. Norman Russell was guest speaker in January. One of the highlights of the year was the annual Christmas party given for the children of the West-nedge home. The banquet in May concluded the year.

The officers for the year were: Betsy Meabon, president; Rita Datcher, vice-president; Emma Hamilton, corresponding secretary; Margaret Blain, recording secretary; Norma Crane, treasurer; and Joyce Wilson, publicity. Sponsors were: Miss Emeline McCowen and Dr. Sara Swickard.

future teachers

In 1938, The Future Teachers of America chapter at Western received the first charter of its kind in Michigan.

Travel has been one of activities of Western's chapter. Pilgrimages to Washington D.C. and New York City have been made. Radio broadcasts, dramatic skits, organizing high school FTA clubs, and acceptance of invitations to help in programs of other college chapters were just part of the many activities. One of the year's projects was the presentation to Mr. Carl R. Cooper, sponsor, of the initial requisites for life membership in both the MEA and the NEA.

The officers of the year were: Harold Cook, president; Marilyn De Vries, vice-president; Phyllis Corlin, secretary; Lorraine Thomas, treasurer; and Shirley Shriber, social chairman.

Seven men and women represented Western's Oratory and Extempore Speaking group in intercollegiate competition. At the Peace Contests, held at Alma, Waverly Ketchum was the extempore speaker in the men's division, speaking on "Our Foreign Policy." Paul Winans spoke in men's oratory on the subject, "Foundations For Peace." In women's oratory, Roberta Brown took second place, speaking on the subject, "To Understand."

The Annual Michigan Intercollegiate Speech League contests were held at Ferris Institute. Willard DeJonge, Western's representative in extempore speaking qualified for the finals but did not place. In oratory, both Peggy Davidson and Earle Robinson qualified for the finals, and Peggy took first place. Peggy spoke on "The Big Noise." Peggy represented Michigan in the women's division at the Interstate Oratorical League contests at Northwestern University in April.

Western's men's debate team did a lot of talking this past year as they participated in 50 intercollegiate debates and one legislature conference.

Beginning in November the team won one and lost seven in the Bradley University Tournament. At the Michigan Intercollegiate Speech League Novice Debate Tournament, which was held at Michigan State College, the team of John Marr, Clark Natwick, Ed Browning, Melvin Day, Richard Howe, Noel Jackson, Ken Edwardson, and Jack Christian won five and lost seven. At the Chicago Navy Pier the team broke even, four and four.

Identical scores were posted against Northwestern University and Wisconsin, winning two out of eight, with the match against the Badgers closing the season.

Mrs. Deldee Herman, Pat Nuding, Dona Young, Martha Smith.

During the 1952-53 forensic season, Western's women debaters participated in five debate tournaments, two discussion conferences, and two legislative sessions. Using the college debate and discussion topics, the proposition used in debate was: Resolved, That the Congress of the United States should enact a compulsory fair employment practices law. An equally timely topic was used for discussion: How can we most effectively combat communism? At the 1952 National Tau Kappa Alpha Conference, held at the University of Denver, Patricia VanVleet was ranked as one of the five best discussants at the Conference. For this Pat received an individual certificate and Western received an engraved plaque. This is the second consecutive year that Western's women debaters have won such an award.

In addition to all this, Western's women debaters sponsored for the fourth consecutive year, the High School Debate and Discussion Conference in September.

epsilon pi tau

Epsilon Pi Tau, industrial arts fraternity on campus has just completed its fourth year as an organization here at Western.

This fraternity is a chapter of Alpha-Kappa and is one of the two fraternities of this kind in the state of Michigan.

The activities of the fraternity during the past year included: two formal initiation dinners, business meetings, which consisted of well known speakers and movies in the industrial field of education, and also the chapter furnished the initiation team for the American Industrial Arts Convention held in Detroit, this spring. A major project was the cleaning, fixing, and the furnishing of instructors for Heege Community Center in Kalamazoo.

Officers and sponsors of Epsilon Pi Tau for 1952-53 were Roger Hummel, president; William G. Yena, vice-president; Mugitch Karagevsian, treasurer; Harry Brown, secretary; Dr. John L. Feirer and Mr. Lawrence J. Brink, trustees.

industrial arts association

The Industrial Arts Association is an outgrowth of the Industrial Arts Club, organized in 1917. Its purpose is to create an interest in industrial arts, and to offer opportunity for individual expression and participation in educational programs of interest to the Department of Industrial Arts Education. The activities include social functions, discussion groups, trips, and educational gatherings. The highlight of the year was the annual Industrial Arts Dinner Dance in the spring.

The sponsors for the year were Henry Beukema and Lindsay Farnan. Officers were: Sylvester Szymczak, president; Philip Bailey, vice-president; William Braun, secretary; Alva Mallony, treasurer.

The Occupational Therapy Club was organized shortly after the department became a part of Western Michigan College in the Fall of 1944. It was an outgrowth of the smaller, individual class organizations existing when the school was at the Kalamazoo State Hospital.

The year's activities opened with a welcoming party for the freshman O.T. students. The club had a float for the Homecoming parade and a tea following the game. There was a Christmas sale of homemade articles before the vacation. For the spring another sale was held and the year's activities closed with an annual banquet honoring the seniors.

The officers for the year were: Joyce De Moor, president; Shirley Smith, vice-president; Barbara Friend, secretary; Stephanie Cesokas, treasurer; Joyce Shepard, program chairman; Janet Mollhagen, social chairman; and Jerald Stowell, publicity.

The sponsors for the last year were: Mrs. Jane Thomas, O.T.R., and Miss Rosalie Kiss, O.T.R.

Bronson School of Nursing is affiliated with Western on a five-year plan leading to a B. S. degree. The three-year students also take much of their academic studies the first semester on Western's campus.

Bronson won national approval for their school in 1904 and became affiliated with Western in 1927.

A thoroughly modern addition and remodeled old building gives Bronson Methodist hospital a bed capacity of 288. Here the student nurse receives her practical clinical experience as well as advanced theoretical knowledge from our faculty of doctors and nurses. Affiliations in psychiatric and rural community nursing give added experience.

Monthly informal dances in the recreation room, two formals a year, a Mothers' Day banquet and the Bronson choir help add zest to the life of a student nurse.

pre-med club

The Pre-Med Club was founded at Western on April 9, 1941 for the purpose of bringing together students interested in medicine and its allied fields. The club also strives to aid the students in their further study for these professions.

The activities for the year included movies on surgery and other forms of medical treatment. Numerous doctors were invited to clarify any of the topics being discussed and to talk on other specialized subjects.

The officers for the year were: Robert Laird, president; William Lubke, vice-president; Jacqueline Steward, secretary; and John Carter, treasurer. Mr. J. Towner Smith and Mr. Roy E. Joyce served as sponsors.

phi epsilon

Membership to Phi Epsilon is open to any woman interested, socially or professionally, in physical education and recreational activities.

The members of Phi Ep opened the year's activities with a co-ed splash party. Others were held at various times during the two semesters. At Christmastime, the girls entertained the Lake Farm boys at the Women's Gym. The last event was a week-end house party for all the members at Pretty Lake.

The officers for the past year were: Nancy Wright, president; Jean Vorphal, vice-president; Mary Jo Gilliland, secretary; and Joyce Frank, treasurer. The faculty sponsors were Miss Crystal Worner and Miss Doris Hussey.

philosophy forum

The Philosophy Forum unites present and former students of philosophy in informal discussion and fellowship. Throughout the year the Forum met the first and third Thursdays of every month in the Social room of Kanley Memorial chapel, and discussed various problems of philosophy, ethics and esthetics.

Public meetings were also presented. Included among the speakers were Ralph Merriam of Chicago who spoke on Plato and L. J. Hemmes of Kalamazoo College who spoke on Santayana. A Christmas Social was held in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Friedmann, and late in May the Forum concluded its activities by a picnic at Gull Lake.

Officers were: Frederick VanNus, president; Louise Boyce, vice-president; Joan Digert, secretary-treasurer; Dale Pattison, publicity.

The Players started the school season by capturing the first prize for originality in the Homecoming parade. Their Christmas party was held at Miss Shaw's home where original homemade gifts were unwrapped and exchanged. During January the Players presented Sidney Howard's dramatic play, "The Silver Cord." To entertain the audience during the Freshman Carnival members of the club enacted a skit of a Bronco game. A picnic brought the year's activities to an end. The roster of the officers for the year included: Bob Ellis, president; Roberta Brown, first vice-president; Betty De Young, second vice-president; Joni Newblom, secretary; Jud Newcombe, treasurer. Miss Shaw served as sponsor and Miss Bush and Miss Caughran were the faculty advisors.

players

From its beginning in the fall of 1946, the Sky Broncos Club has maintained a steady pattern of flight in the skies over Western Michigan College.

To stimulate an active interest in flying among the students in the ever growing field of aviation, a large number of meetings were devoted to films and talks on all phases of aviation. Also, included in the group's yearly program were such social projects as a dance and a Homecoming float.

Officers of the club for 1952-53 were: Marshall Boynton, president; Leo Packard, vice-president; Herschel King, secretary and James Eccles, treasurer. Ground control was carried on by Mr. Herbert Ellinger and Mr. Robert Ring, instructors in the aviation department and sponsors of the Sky Broncos.

The Stratford Club is a club for students interested in all phases of English, and all students were majoring or minoring in the field of English were invited to join in these activities. Through the efforts of this club the students were able to become more intimate with the faculty of the English Department by meeting them in a social manner.

During the year meetings were held twice a month at which time various aspects of English were taken up. The Christmas party was one of the highlights of the year.

The officers of the group for the 1952-53 school year were: Phyllis Chapman, president; Norman Slack, vice-president; Barbara Stewart, secretary; Betty Horsch, treasurer; Doris Percy, historian.

Sponsors of the club were: Dr. William Brown, Mr. Fred Rogers, Mr. Frank Householder and Mr. Charles Smith.

ts'ai lun

Although paper making has existed since very early Egyptian times, Ts'ai Lun's production records extend only as far back as 1951. Consequently one of their purposes is to develop and extend knowledge of the art and science of paper making to society. In doing so they are establishing a closer relationship between the interest of the student and the paper industry by having various speakers from the paper industry speak at their meetings.

Presiding over these meetings this past year was Jim Winn, president; Richard Beeman, vice-president; Roy Jones, secretary; David Forsmen, treasurer; and Frank Yankoviak, alumni secretary. Sponsors were Dr. Alfred Nadelman, Robert Elias, and Paul Newton.

The American Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation now has a chapter at Western, having been formed this past year. It is a national, state, and local organization with the aims of keeping all physical education members informed of further developments in the field of health, physical education, and recreation.

Membership is open to men and women majoring or minoring in the field of education.

The meetings featured speakers and other forms of entertainment while the group also sponsored monthly co-ed splash parties for all students. Many helpful ideas were brought back with members who attended the state convention at Lansing and the regional at Madison, Wisconsin. Officers of the year were William Yena, president; Dorothy Trempel, vice-president; Chuck Brotebeck, secretary; Georgiana Lewis, treasurer; while Bob Taylor and Marcia Smith were social chairmen.

w club

In order to provide an outlet from the stress and strain of intercollegiate athletics some thoughtful lettermen formed the "W" Club in 1920. As a club it has been continuously active, extremely so this past year. It entertained the students twice and the faculty once in the form of a juke box dance for the students and both were included in the "Faculty vs "W" Club" basketball game. This was the first of what hopes to be an annual event. The faculty won 32-31.

Within the group itself there exists the annual dinner dance plus a spring and fall picnic. Another traditional event is selling of programs at the football and basketball games and handling the concessions at the baseball games. Most of the proceeds from these activities go to the "W" Club Scholarship Fund.

Officers for the year were Bill Brown, president; Jack Russel, vice-president; Al Horn, recording secretary; Chuck Higgins, corresponding secretary; Don Grimm, treasurer. Sponsors were Ed Gabel and Clayton Maus.

water sprites

The purpose of the Water Sprites, which was founded in 1948 by Miss Jean Smith, is to teach students synchronized swimming.

At the meetings which were held once a week, the members practiced synchronized swimming and stunts for numbers they wrote for the water show which is presented every spring. The theme of this year's show was "New York." Also included in last year's activities was participation in a competitive swimming meet held in Bowling Green, Ohio.

The officers for this year were: Carol Koonman, president; Carol Sennema, vice-president; Janet McKee, secretary; Louise Sundstrom, treasurer. The sponsor of the club was Miss Margaret Large.

saber and key

Saber and Key society, a military honor fraternity, was organized April 24, 1951. The purpose is to preserve and develop the essential qualities of good and efficient officers, because of the belief that military service is an obligation of citizenship.

This year a tradition was founded in the presentation of the Curtis L. Varner Military Appearance Award. Another annual affair is the freshman dance. Project for the year was assisting in the campaign for blood donations.

Officers for the year were: Jim Lucas, president; Albert Billingslea, vice-president; Frank Spitters, recording secretary; Jim Porter, treasurer. Sponsors were Col. Emil Mosheim, Major Ehlich Chipley, Major Robert Crowe, and Captain Raymond Estlinbaum.

phi chi eta

Western's chapter of Phi Chi Eta, the national Quartermaster fraternity is represented locally and nationally. It has as one of its members the national treasurer. John Wattles was elected at the 1952 session of summer camp.

One of Phi Chi Eta's most important functions was the reception they gave immediately following the annual review for the review officers and other dignitaries. Of course Phi Chi Eta functioned socially as well, having outings, parties, and initiating new members. Meetings were supplimented by movies and guest speakers.

Officers for the past year consisted of Gerald Peterson, president; Stanley Kupiszewski, vice-president; Larry Hill, secretary; James Richardson and Frank Watts, treasurer. Sponsor was Major Ehrlich Chipley.

rotc

The Quartermaster ROTC unit at Western has grown rapidly during the past three years reaching an enrollment of over 700 cadets. Keeping abreast of the increased enrollment necessitated changes and additions in the cadre. Lt. Col. Emil Mosheim became PMS&T this year, replacing Col. Curtis Varner who is now serving in Formosa. Other replacements and additions brought the department up to six officers and six non-commissioned officers.

Western's ROTC unit received its share of awards in the past year. At summer camp at Fort Lee, Virginia, Western became the first college in the United States to win the marksmanship trophy two years in a row. Also the preparation of students for summer camp by the staff was rated superior; the highest rating given. In retrospect the students themselves were rated superior in all activities.

Highlights for cadets featured the Military Ball held April 18th and the Final Review of all cadets by the Federal representative which came early this year, April 30th.

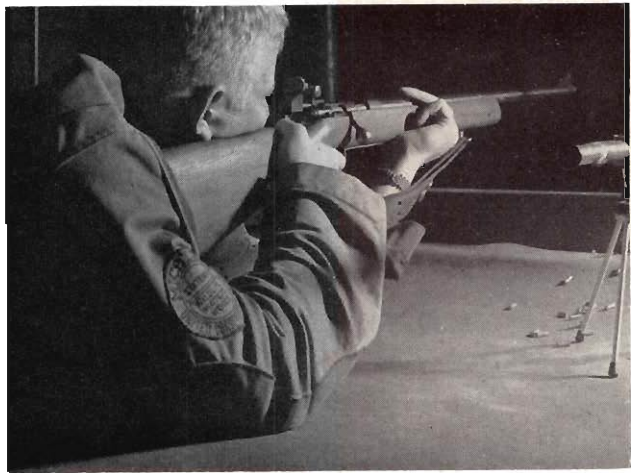

From the end of the school year in June and to the completion of summer camp in August thirty-four cadets will have received their commissions either in the Regular Army or in the Quartermaster Reserve Corps as second lieutenants.

draper hall

Draper Hall residents will remember this as the "year of the big fire," when their float went up in smoke before the Homecoming parade began. The float, however, won an honorable mention and the lawn display won a third prize.

Other memorable events of the year were the "Blues in the Night" open house, a faculty tea, the traditional Christmas party, the Easter breakfast, and the senior dinner. Climaxing the social calendar, Draper and Siedschlag presented their annual spring formal in May.

Officers for the first semester were Helen Miller, president; Lorraine Rudzinski, vice-president; Jean Kenny, second vice-president; Carol Sennema, secretary; and Marilyn Bryant, treasurer. During the second semester Beverley Partington was president; Janet Schaffer, vice-president; Joan Tarr, second vice-president; Pat Kelly, secretary; and Marilyn Bryant, treasurer. Miss Yvonne Smith assisted Mrs. Helen Inman as housemother.

siedschlag hall

Siedschlag Hall began its varied social activities this year with a pajama party for the new girls during Freshman week. There was a display and float for Homecoming weekend, and a coffee in the recreation room after the game. Miss Nancy Lay, a Siedschlag freshman was chosen Homecoming queen.

Fall activities were climaxed by the open house on November 21 which had an Hawaiian theme. Traditional dorm parties included monthly pajama parties, Thanksgiving, Christmas and birthday dinners, and pajama breakfasts. Several times during the year Draper-Siedschlag Halls cooperated with Burnham Halls for exchange dinners and informal mixers.

The Easter breakfast and the Senior dinner were included in the second semester's social calendar. Highlighting this spring term was the Lydia Siedschlag Dinner—honoring the woman for whom our dormitory was named. The Draper-Siedschlag formal was held on May 23.

First semester officers were Carol Matthews, president; Katie Reid, first vice-president; Marilyn Hain, second vice-president; Sondra Flagg, secretary; and Pat Ankey, treasurer.

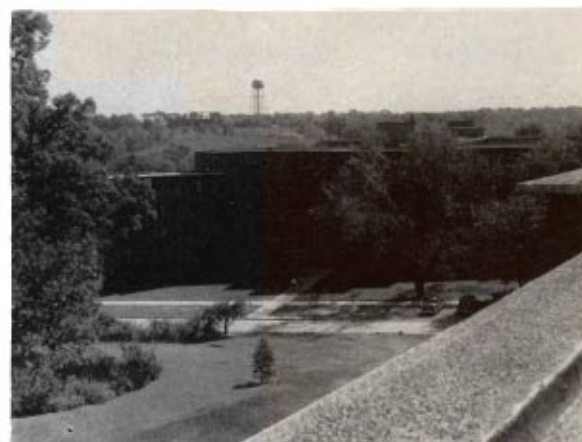

Second semester officers were Katie Reid, president; Chesterine Oszustowicz, first vice-president; Marilyn Hain, second vice-president; Barbara Place, secretary; and Gretta Pryor, treasurer.

spindler hall

Spindler girls old and new were welcomed this fall by Mrs. Katharine R. Parsons, house-mother, and Mrs. Ruth Kerkhoff, assistant housemother.

Homecoming was the first activity on the social agenda and Spindler girls worked diligently on the dorm decorations and the float which was entitled, "I Western, Take Thee Toledo." The float won a third prize. The annual fall open house was based on the song, "Come-On-A-My-House." Spindler girls were also kept busy with a Thanksgiving Coffee, a pajama party, the traditional Christmas breakfast and dorm party.

The Spring semester was equally as busy as the fall. Spindler and Walwood combined their talents and planned the inter-dorm informal dance. The mothers were honored on Mother's Day, and later in the semester the senior women were honored with a dinner. A lawn supper climaxed a busy year for all "Spindlerites."

Dormitory officers were: Joan Dimmick, president; Nancy Fox, first vice-president; Patty Hawken, second vice-president; Nona Kriser, secretary; Roberta Brown, treasurer. The Student Councilors were: Alice Young, Jean Adams, and Betts Snyder.

walwood hall

Walwood Hall girls started this year asking, "What Price Culture?" as their open-house theme, and carried it through until June. Wedged in with homework and weekends were Vandercook-Walwood open-houses, the homecoming coffee, and the glitter of the engaged girls' tea in the Fall. There was the customary Christmas breakfast and party, and a get-acquainted party for freshmen, and new students started the next semester. Faculty and Mothers' tea, Easter breakfast, and senior women's dinner in the spring filled out the schedule. P.J. and pincurl parties, and monthly birthday dinners were held all during the year.

Guiding this search for culture were Pat Ryan, president; Claudine Pier, first vice-president; Lois Klenk, second vice-president; Mary Mader, secretary; Jackie McKinney, treasurer. Mrs. Mabel Hinkle was House Director while Mrs. Alma Boughey assisted her.

ernest burnham hall

Ernest Burnham Hall cooperated with Smith Burnham Hall to hold their annual "Festival of Knights" in November. Supplemented by informal dances, exchange dinners with the west campus women's dormitories, mixers, and smokers, the year was full socially.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Sokolowski were director and house mother respectively. Sharing their duties were officers: Harold Whitlock, president; George Nielsen, vice president; and Ken Tucker, secretary-treasurer; and the council, which includes the director, counselors, officers, proctors, and elected representatives. Resident counselors were James Boynton and Jack Plano.

smith burnham hall

Smith Burnham Hall functioned this year as a separate unit under the administration of Dr. Hermann Rothfuss, director; Mrs. Ilse Rothfuss, housemother; with Herbert Jones and William Shearer serving as counselors. The council's social committee sponsored several exchange dinners with Draper-Siedschlag Halls; they co-sponsored the annual dance, "Festival of Knights" with Earnest Burnham; and gave a few late evening "smokers" to add to the atmosphere of dormitory life. The homecoming lawn display which won first place honors was another of the events that will be remembered by "Burnhamites."

Vandercook Hall, located on the East Campus, houses more than two hundred men. In September 1952, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Myers replaced Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hinds as directors. In recognition of their outstanding service the council named one of the dormitory halls, "Hinds Hall." Assisting the Myers' as counselors were Charles Starring, Hugh Anderson, and John Hungerford.

Vandercook celebrated Homecoming with an open house and won second prize for their outside decoration. The highlight of the dorm's social activities this past year was the twelfth annual Tepee Tango semi-formal which was held in April. Other social activities included get-acquainted and farewell smokers and the traditional Christmas party. Officers were: Edwin Clark, president; Dale Lancaster, vice-president; James Zagelmeyer, secretary-treasurer; Don MacFayden, parliamentarian; and Donn Withey, athletic director.

Alpha Pi Beta was founded on Western's campus with eighteen charter members in the fall of 1951. The aims of this organization are to promote among its members leadership, high morals, and scholastic achievements.

In the Homecoming parade Alpha Pi's float won second prize for originality. After the game the Alpha Pi's held a dinner in honor of their dads. Their next activity was a fund-raising card party for the Panhellenic House held at the home of Mrs. Sangren.

Other activities for the spring included an informal dance, "Black Cats Alley," rushing and pledging activities, Mother's Day week-end tea, and the annual house party.

Leaders for the year included Kathleen Folks, president; Barbara Parham, vice-president; Betty De Young, secretary; and Jackie Adair, treasurer. Mrs. Paul V. Sangren and Mrs. Robert Young served as sponsors.

alpha pi beta

Sociedant Sorority had its beginning at Western Michigan College on May 1, 1952. Its purpose is to promote character development and to provide a healthy social and intellectual life for its members. Plans have been made since last year to merge with Delta Sigma Theta, a national sorority.

Sociedant's activities for the year included: a Homecoming coffee with their brother fraternity, Kappa Alpha Psi, a style show with participating members from all sororities on campus, a skating party, a dance on campus, and participation in the Exploration Faith Week. The girls also adopted a needy family in Kalamazoo to which they presented a Christmas basket.

The officers for the year were Shirlee Smith, president; Sondra Flagg, vice-president; Anita Bryant, recording secretary; Helen Harmon, corresponding secretary; Ann Reid, treasurer and historian; Deloris McGee, social chairman. Dr. Frances Noble and Mrs. Lenora Dunlap served as sponsors.

Gamma Xi chapter of Alpha Chi Omega national sorority was installed at Western Michigan College on April 21, 1951. Before becoming the seventy-seventh chapter of Alpha Chi, Senate sorority had been an active social sorority on Western's campus since 1916.

Alpha Chi Omega was founded and dedicated to the task of giving women of today a larger vision of life, with appreciation of the value of art in the fullest meaning of the word. Our open motto, "together let us seek the heights," expresses our purpose.

A booth at the student carnival opened the year's activities, followed a few weeks later by an informal dance, the Autumn Mixer. At Homecoming time, the Alpha Chi's rushed the season with a "Snow 'Em Western" float. Six fall pledges were honored at the annual luncheon for alumnae at the Harris Hotel.

A hard-times party at the Sigma Alpha Delta fraternity house, and a party given for the chapter members by the alumnae took place in November. Kanley Chapel was the scene of initiation ceremonies in December, after which followed a formal banquet.

The traditional Christmas party was held with Kappa Sigma Kappa.

Spring activities included the initiation and the annual Mother's Day luncheon.

Officers were: Kay Kalhorn, president; Mary Dansard, vice-president; Dorothy Osman, secretary; and Ruth Hall, treasurer. Mrs. Roscoe Snyder, Miss Margaret Feather, and Mrs. Marguerite Patton were sponsors.

Alpha Omicron Pi was organized as a local sorority in 1934 and became affiliated with the national group in September of 1951. Its purpose is to furnish a background which will develop sound character, dignity and scholarship. The A O Pi Eating Contest at the all-student carnival opened the year's activities for Alpha Omicron Pi and was followed by the fifth annual Campus Couple Fling, with Carol Plantefaber and Ronald Jackson taking top honors for 1952.

Seventeen new members were initiated into Alpha Omicron Pi this year. The customary Rose Banquet was held at the Harris Hotel honoring Founders' Day as well as the new initiates.

Hard work at Homecoming time produced their "Broncs are Tops" float. That weekend, also, returning alumnae were welcomed at the yearly reception at the home of Mrs. William Berry. Spring activities were the Mothers' Day luncheon, the houseparty, and the all-sorority pledge formal.

Leaders during the past year were Mary Reinhardt, president; Dorothy Cook, vice-president; Cleora Fletcher, recording secretary; Sylvia Poff, corresponding secretary; and Joyce Jensen, treasurer. Mrs. William Berry and Mrs. Joseph Hoy were sponsors for the group.

alpha sigma alpha

Alpha Sigma Alpha became the sixth national sorority to be installed on Western's campus. Beta Psi was initiated the weekend of the 18th and 19th of April.

As a local during the past year Alpha Sigma centered their inteseests around such activities as entering a float in the Homecoming parade; holding their annual Christmas party, which was only one aspect of the holiday spirit that included sending fruit baskets to old people's homes and caroling. One of the last social functions as a local was the Fireman's Ball.

On March 15 Alpha Sigma pledged Alpha Sigma Alpha national social sorority and began a new career on the weekend of the 18th and 19th of April. Functioning as a national the Alpha Sigma's feted their mothers to Mother's Day dinner and followed this up with a senior party. Officers for the year were Dorothy Trempel, president; Jeanne Strand, vice-president; Katie Reid, treasurer; and Char Neilson, secretary. Mrs. Lindsay Farnan and Mrs. J. ## delta zeta Gamma Pi Chapter of Delta Zeta became Western Michigan's first national sorority when it was installed in 1950. Through active academic, governmental, and social membership and leadership on campus, the members of Delta Zeta live by the principle that good citizenship in college prepares for good citizenship in the world.

A third annual "Buttons and Bows" dance in September highlighted the early fall semester activities. This was followed by Homecoming which featured a float and an alumnae coffee. To foster closer Greek relationships on campus, the Delta Zeta's had exchange parties with fraternities and other sororities.

For the first time the D. Z.'s celebrated Dad's Day with an Open House after the football game, and another first was the editing of a news letter sent to all Gamma Pi alumnaes and local chapters.

The spring activities included State Day held at Albion college, Mother's Day luncheon and the Panhellenic pledge formal. To end up the year the D. Z.'s relaxed for a week-end house party at St. Mary's lake.

The officers for the year were: Gloria Allen, president; Emma Hamilton, vice-president; Margaret Blain, recording secretary; Janet Felber, treasurer. Mrs. John C. Hoekje Sr. and Mrs. Wendell Harrison were the sponsors.

omega chi gamma

Omega Chi Gamma was founded on the campus of Western Michigan College in 1945 as a non-national organization. The purpose of this organization is to help acquaint "off campus" girls with the activities of college life.

During this past year, Omega Chi Gamma sponsored service projects, banquets, dances and a rummage sale. It also aided hospital projects. Officers for the year were: Dorothy Moses, president; Nancy Tait, vice-president; Judy Goodrich, secretary; Janet Gruss, treasurer and Delores Thorson, publicity chairman. Mrs. Arden Detert served as sponsor.

sigma kappa

Gamma Beta chapter of Sigma Kappa was installed on Western's campus in December, 1950, after having been known locally for many years as Academy. The sorority's national philanthropic project is the Maine Seacoast mission.

The social calendar started with the Homecoming festivities which included a float in the parade, and a luncheon to welcome the returning alumni. In November the Delt Sigs were guests at a party following a scavenger hunt in which the two groups collected 500 cans of food for needy families at Thanksgiving. With December, came the "Winter Whirl," a dressy dance, and the Christmas party with Tau Kappa Epsilon. In April the Sigma Kaps were hostesses to the alumni groups and the Alpha Tau chapter of Michigan State for the biennial State Day. Other spring activities included the Mother's Day Luncheon, the Intersorority pledge formal, and the busy year ended with the big, annual house party.

Officers were: Janet MacDonald, president; Carol Matthews, first vice-president; Joyce Wilson, second vice-president; Stephanie Romanowski, recording secretary; Donna Sumrill, corresponding secretary, and Carlie Broman, treasurer. Sponsors for the year were Miss Mathilde Steckleberg, Miss Hazel Cleveland, and Miss Betty Taylor.

Sigma Sigma Sigma was founded at Longwood College, Virginia, in 1898. The Beta Rho Chapter was installed at Western in April, 1952.

Tri Sigma started the year by entering into the spirit of Homecoming with an Alumnae breakfast at the Columbia Hotel, and by entering a float in the parade. The Tri Sigmas wore their purple pixie hats which made a hit on campus.

In the spirit of Christmas, the second annual Christmas party for a group of Kalamazoo's underprivileged children was held at the home of Mrs. L. B. Jaqua. Caroling and parties were also a part of the season's fun. One of the highlights of the sorority year was the Regional meeting in Detroit. The entire chapter attended this meeting.

In December Tri Sigma initiated its first pledge class as a national sorority. The year was brought to a close with the Mother's Day Tea and the annual house party.

Leaders for the year were: Julane Jaqua, president; Joyce Boske, vice-president; Everil Meloeche, recording secretary; Betty Finch, corresponding secretary; and Dorothy Althouse, treasurer. The sponsors were Mrs. Theodore Carlson and Mrs. Willis Dunbar.

theta pi alpha

The year's activities were started with the Koffee Klatch, the annual Homecoming coffee for returning alums. This was followed by an informal juke box dance in November. During the Christmas season the alums were invited back again, this time for a yuletide party. Other annual events in Theta Pi Alpha's 22nd year were the Mother's Day luncheon and the house party which climaxed the year's fun. Chosen to lead the group for the year were Yvonne Short, president; Marilyn Darrow, vice-president; Kathleen Picket, recording secretary; Thelma Estill, corresponding secretary; and Marilyn Wagner, treasurer. Miss Anne Fuller served as faculty sponsor.

Inter-fraternity Council, governing body of all social fraternities on campus, has accomplished much during the past year to further cooperation among fellow Greeks by I.F.C. sponsored functions. The first event was a "Watermelon Bust" held during Freshman Days for all new students. Once again the I.F.C. accepted the difficult job of running the Homecoming Queen Contest. Through full cooperation from all the fraternities, the complete contest from the banquet to gifts for the queen and her court, was efficiently handled.

In an attempt to acquaint the prospective rushes with the different fraternities, a mass rush was held at the beginning of the second semester. The Spring highlight was Greek Week which featured a chariot race, track meet, a dance, and sports competition between both fraternities and sororities.

Officers for the year were: Ken Young, president; Charles Beyrer, vice-president; Don Wank, secretary; and Bill Milnes, treasurer. Emil Sokolowski was sponsor for the year.

The Gamma Beta Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity was initiated on the Western campus in January, 1948. It has since, through the mediums of social, educational and inter-fellowship activities, striven to obtain and uphold its fundamental purpose, the achievement of a healthy social and intellectual life for its members.

At the beginning of the first semester Kappa Alpha Psi presented a unique and popular "Break the Record" project at the jam-packed Student Carnival. For the Homecoming alumni Kappa Alpha Psi, in conjunction with the Sociodant Sorority, sponsored a tea for the former students in the Union's West Room.

In recreational activities Kappa Alpha Psi, for the last five years, has presented the Edward Taylor Trophy to the top fraternity during the Greek Week track and field events.

Officers for the year were Lucius Jackson, president; Cleveland Butler, vice-president; John W. Dobbs, secretary; and Albert Billingslea, treasurer. The sponsors were Dr. Robert Bowers and Mr. D. B. Leonardelli.

With a membership of about seventy-five activities, Beta Tau chapter, of Delta Sigma Phi, concluded their fifth year on Western's campus.

Their performance last spring, in the first annual "Greek Week" netted them a first in the track meet. Other firsts this past year for Delt Sigs were, the first annual "Sailors Ball" and a new custom of presenting a dozen carnations to a pinned girl at the night of her serenade.

Traditional with Delta Sigma Phi was their annual "Carnation Ball," and both semester's initiation banquet and dance. Numerous seasonal parties such as the Halloween and Valentine parties supplemented their active year.

Directing Delta Sigma Phi was Garth Holiday, president, first semester; Ron Smith, president, second semester; Bill Beardslee, vice-president, first semester; Bob Dion, vice-president, second semester; Bob Collins, treasurer; Bill Milnes, secretary.

Beta chapter of Sigma Alpha Delta was founded on Western's campus in February of 1951. In the Fall of 1952 the S A D's moved into their new fraternity house across from the Ad Building. With a new home and propagating the spirit of fraternity life they exploited a full social calendar. Winning second place in the All-student Carnival; entering a float in the Homecoming parade and entertaining the alumni began Fall activities. Following this was a well received, third annual Christmas Ball; a Founder's Day Banquet in February; and the National Convention in March, held at Detroit, at which Margaret Gaskill, a Western student, was elected National Queen of Sigma Alpha Delta. Numerous parties with sororities, a friendship smoker for Kappa Alpha Psi, and a May Dinner-Dance concluded the social calendar. The S A D's created a big noise when their Drum and Bugle Corps united with a torchlight parade to encourage campus voting. Officers for the year were: Jim Boyd, president, first semester; John Mayo, president, second semester; George Howe, vice-president; Doug Derhammer and Chuck Stedron, treasurers; Fred Tuttle and Bob Braamse, secretaries; Paul White and Paul Otiepkka, house managers; Joe Crossley, business manager. Fraternity sponsors were Dr. A. L. Sebaly and Robert Young. House mother was Mrs. Mable Mann.

Sigma Epsilon Fraternity had its beginning at Western Michigan College in the fall of 1950 with a nucleus of only twelve members. Since "Sig Eps" beginning, the fraternity has expanded to a membership of thirty-six actives.

The principles that Sigma Epsilon members try to uphold are: To develop and strengthen the characters of its members; to impress upon its members the true significance of fraternal relationship; to aid and sustain the government and discipline of the institution of Western Michigan College.

The highlight of the Sig Eps' Social program was "Heartbeat," a dressy dance held following the Christmas Holidays.

During Homecoming weekend the fraternity held a formal dinner, honoring the returning alumni, at the Red Brick Tavern. On December 6, the fall pledge class was installed at the Columbia Hotel with six new men being added to the active membership list.

The Sig Eps' officers for the year were: Charles Rector, president; Al Sortwell, vice-president; Bob Ellis, treasurer; Maurie Walters, recording secretary; Bill Rockhold, corresponding secretary. Sponsors were Robert Trader and Emil Sokolowski.

sigma tau gamma

Sigma Tau Gamma, the oldest local and national fraternity on campus, began its 39th year on the hilltop by winning first place at the All-Student Carnival with a "Turtle Derby." At Homecoming, alumni were entertained at the annual Stag Dinner, while in November the students were entertained by "The Return of Jack McCall" dance. A hayride and a "Hallow-giving Party" concluded pre-holiday functions.

Taking time out after a Gambling party in January, Sig Tau's proved they were more than just social by winning permanent possession of the scholarship cup for fraternities.

Parties for sororities; pledge skits and dances; these were just a preview to Sig Tau's big event of the year, the White Rose dinner-dance, held again at the Gull Lake Country Club.

Officers for the year were: Ted Wank, president; Morris Richman, vice-president, first semester; Phil Faustman, vice-president, second semester; Bud Dahlman, secretary; Jack Fennel, treasurer; Bob Treloar, social chairman, first semester; Ted Dickerson, social chairman, second semester. The sponsors were Howard Bigelow, Charles Starring, and Dr. Sam Clark.

tau kappa epsilon

The Delta Alpha chapter of T K E, originally a debating society, was known for thirty-one years as Theta Chi Delta. In 1952 it was initiated into Tau Kappa Epsilon national. It maintained a reputation for leading in campus activities; for striving to achieve its worthy standards . . . moral strength, fellowship, and scholastic achievement.

The annual Homecoming Alumni Dinner, a Saturday night dance in honor of the Sigma Epsilon Fraternity, Christmas caroling with the Sigma Kappa Sorority, and their traditional Christmas Dinner-Dance highlighted fall and early winter social events. In January the Founders' Day Banquet was held in the new Fraternity House which was purchased in December. The social calendar was climaxed with "The Ides of March," annual all-student dance. Officers this year were: Fred Markle, president; Ken Young, vice-president; Howard Morrison, secretary; Don Spitler and Bob Overloop, treasurers; Myrl Wilkinson, pledge-father; Wendell Harrison, chaplain; Dave Peterson, historian; and Dale McAllister, sgt.-at-arms. Sponsors were Taisto Niemi, and Dr. George Mallinson.

zeta delta epsilon

Zeta Delta Epsilon, founded in 1941, is one of the oldest local fraternities on Western's campus. The active members are residing in their recently acquired fraternity house located at 620 West South Street.

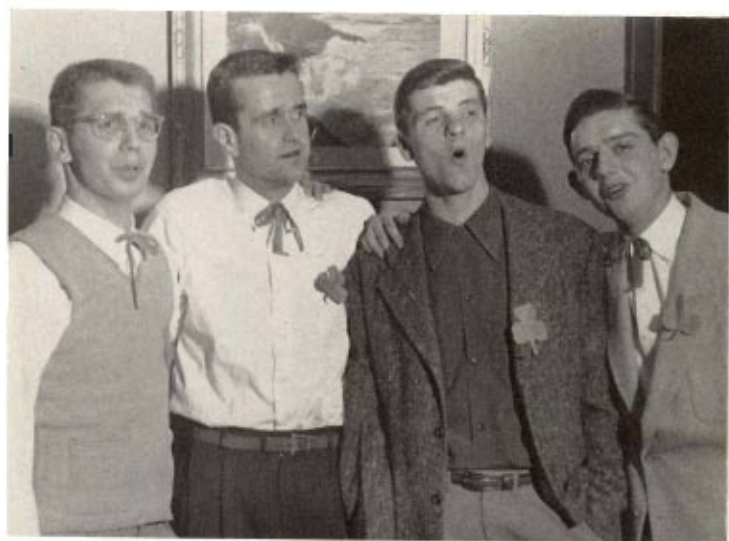

Zeta Delta Epsilon's objectives are two-fold; To give to the students the opportunity of working and living together in a small unit, and to give service to the school and the community.

Each year Zeta Delta Epsilon has a well balanced social program. In conjunction with its alumni association it sponsored a dinner-dance following the Homecoming football game. In the first week of December, active members honored the fall pledge class with another dinner-dance. Also during December the annual Christmas Tree sale was held with the proceeds going into the house fund. The biggest event of the year was the annual "Sweetheart Ball" which was held soon after the opening of the spring semester. Next, for sport, there was the "Steak and Mush Dinner" held on the first of April. This dinner served as an incentive for the maintenance of high marks, since members having a scholastic average above the mean for the group ate steak, while those whose average were below the mean for the group ate mush. To close out the school year a dinner-dance was given in honor of the spring pledge class.

Officers for the year were Bill Slaughter, president; Richard Kowal, vice-president; Bill De Graw, secretary; Donald Garratt, treasurer; and Jack Paterek, House Manager. Dr. Fatzinger and Mr. Farnan served as faculty advisors.

A Pleasure To Read

You've probably noticed the sharp, clean printing in this year's Brown and Gold. Text is easy to read, illustrations reproduce perfectly.

One reason for this superlative presswork is the paper. It's Mirrogloss Enamel . . . one of the finest enamel papers on the market today . . . made for Bermingham & Prosser by the Allied Paper Mills of Kalamazoo.

Mirrogloss, with its excellent printing and folding qualities, is the perfect paper for folders and catalogues. Whenever you buy such printing, tell your printer to use Mirrogloss Enamel.
